CONQUERING YOUR PERSONAL GOALS

The title of this book is not a proposal for you to have the same desires of Alexander the Great, Napoleon Bonaparte or Hitler. We will not teach you people to dominate or conquer nations, but we will show you a safe environment for you to conquer your personal goals. This book will help you succeed with your work, with your family, your business, at school, at church, at the club in your neighborhood or community group in which you participate.

You may conquer all your dreams of wealth, prosperity, success, fame, beauty, love and happiness. Everything that is desired can be obtained because you are a very special child for the Creator and deserves every best that life can offer to mankind on the entire planet. However, to conquer your dreams, there are certain spiritual rules you need to know and especially, practice them to get those positive results.

The American writer Norman Vincent Peale (1898-1993) stood out as the major disseminator of positive thoughts. One of his quotes: “Change your thoughts and you can change your world”, has revealed that our thoughts have great power and influence in human life, determining a happy or unhappy destination.

The power of Positive Thinking or the Law of Attraction is a incessantly acting force in the lives of all mankind and will be covered in the next chapters, in the aspect that it has been attracted more the interest of people on: the attraction of wealth, prosperity and financial blessings. Besides the Power of Positive Thinking, there are several factors that contribute to help you conquer all you desire from life, everything you wish to get and live. We will cover one in special that the authors of self-assurance books, when they consider it, just as an additional component. However, this factor is essential for that everything good happen in your life.

It is thought in Christian churches that the blessings of financial prosperity is a reward for those who have faith and act according to the Word of God described in the Bible. But how do we explain about wealth people who are not Christian and do not follow the same principles followed by religious people? The Christians learn at the church that, to be financially blessed, he needs to give their offerings and comply with the biblical commandments to tithe. Being a faithful Christian, God will reward him with financial prosperity. However, it is an unmistakable fact that God distributes its wealth to Christians and non Christians. Even the atheists who have never given a penny to any Christian church might become rich and prosperous. Certainly, there is a determinant factor in the acquisition of wealth that is independent of religious belief.

The books teach that the Law of Attraction does not work in your life because you think the wrong way. If you wish to be rich, but thinks “I don.t want to be poor”, the Law of Attractions would understand that you want to be poor and not rich, because it does not consider words or thoughts of denial. These books also teach simply because you do not think enough about abundance richness, as if the achievement of wealth was a result of just positive thoughts. Moreover, we want to dispel that myth that thoughts of abundance attract wealth. Other authors mention that you must develop the spirit of gratitude in relation to life itself in order you receive the good things you want. That is, you just receive things in advance for that you believed that you already received.

Those factors are secondary, because even though you follow these recommendations, you still won't have any guarantees that the Law of Attraction will manifest. You may have noticed that the Law of Attraction does not always work although you might follow all the tips of the books. You wish a lot, have many dreams, but nothing happens in your life because you do not know the real key to transform anyone's life.

That is the secret for your transformation inside as well. Doing so, all your life will flow in peace, well being and prosperity. It is a simple and easy task, However, it is very laborious. The only requirement embark on this path to prosperity is to have good will. When you have good will, it is easier to conquer.

You are someone very much capable to transform not only your world, but the world of those around you, making it more beautiful and happier. In this book, you will learn the fundamental principle that leads to life, to success, to achievements and prosperity. Experience these principles in your daily life, in everything that happens to you, and you will find after a while the amazing transformation that will happen in your life.

THE REAL SECRET

This book will teach you the fundamental basics for achieving everything you want. Without this knowledge, everything you've read and learned about the Law of Attraction has little or no effect. It doesn't matter your status in society, as everything that will be revealed in this book has an universal nature, applicable to any person without distinction of sex, race, color or religious belief.

The real secret is that the other books did not mention yet, is to HELP OTHERS. That is the spiritual foundation to begin attracting prosperity. You will learn in this work that the good things you wish for your life, such as wealth, happiness, health, beauty, satisfaction, success, fame, your dreams coming true and everything you want, only happens when you realize that you need a generous mind and an effective disposition to help others.

The charity, or any assistance to anyone in need of help, is the secret that you did not know and will be revealed in this book. The functioning of that wonderful mechanism to conquer your dreams. Without this knowledge, not even the most powerful thinking will be effective. If you wish to get help from life to conquer your dreams, but first do help life as well. Helping others, you will be helping life itself because you will collaborate on the construction of a better world and the Universe (God) will attend to all your prayers.

To live in a better world, with abundance and prosperity for all, it is fundamental to understand the spiritual laws that were created by God for the happiness of all mankind. It doesn't matter your religious beliefs, it does not matter what you believe or do not believe in theological or religious terms. The Law of Attraction is an active and present law for the entire universe and the knowledge of how that law works, will release you from unhappiness, poverty, emotional suffering, financial difficulties and everything that is manifested in your life producing disharmony and unhappiness. Helping others, will also bring you help because you will be using the Law of Attraction that acts upon the lives of all people, approaching those who are similar among themselves.

You do not need to use creative visualizations or any other ingenious techniques to conquer your dreams, because those practices are complementary. What really matters to bring effective blessings in life is to help others with regularity. To do all the good that is within your possibilities. Make charities and worry about people around you. To help any person who is in need of help. Again, helping others will bring everything you wish in proportion to the efforts you make to help others.

The books of self-assurance will teach the reader the way to become rich and prosperous. This book leads the reader and others to a path for being rich and prosperous too, as your willingness to help others will always be an example for others to do the same. Thus, a large global network of fraternity and cooperation will take form very soon, finally destroying the poverty and misery from all humanity.

THE PURGATORY AND THE PARADISE

A rabbi very righteous was permitted to visit a purgatory and a paradise. First, he was taken to the purgatory, from which came horrific screams. It was a room where there were men sitting at a beautiful table richly decorated with fine china and silver. On top of it, there were many delicious delicacies. There were so much food that they could feast for all eternity. However, those men were so skinny that their bones were showing through their fine skin and their popped out eyes showed how hungry they were.

I just don.t understand why they suffered so much. The rabbi paid more attention and noticed that those men.s elbows were reversed, so that they could not bend their arms and take those delicacies to their mouth. They tried to eat by themselves, but they couldn.t. Then the rabbi was taken to the paradise, where he could listen to delightful laughter and where it reined an atmosphere of celebration. To his surprise, he found the same room seen previously at the purgatory with the same table richly decorated and the same delicious food. The men he found there had that same inverted elbows, but they were good looking, strong and happy. However, there was a very special detail: those men were feeding one another. That is the secret of happiness and prosperity that this book aims to teach you.

A lot of people who knows the Law of Attraction superficially are like those men at the purgatory. They know that there is abundant with everything good in the universe and they are just looking at their beauty, healthy, wealthy and conquering every material rich they wish for. However, they are still ugly, poor, unhappy and failures, simply because they want to feed by themselves, and do not help others. They're selfish, greedy and materialistic, that mistakenly believe that thinking about wealth and prosperity will attract blessings to their lives.

You will discover in this book that the Law of Attraction will transform your life and bring prosperity, but it will not be done by similarity of thoughts or mind fantasies, but with similarities with yourself, with your internal being and with your spiritual aura. The wise story above shows a way to happiness and the achievements to your dreams. God created men to live in group helping each other. When you mobilize your energy to help someone, your internal vibrations are faster and your aura lights up and become beautifully colored. The solidarity always practiced is the safest and effective method for the realization of your dreams.

ACTION AND REACTION

“He who sows iniquity will reap sorrow...”

(Proverbs 22:8)

“They sow the wind, and reap the whirlwind...”

(Hosea 8:7)

“But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and there is no partiality.”

(Colossians 3:25)

In nature, there is a physical law that can be expressed as follows: “To every action there is always an opposite or equal reaction.” This is the third law of Isaac Newton, a basic mechanical physics law that indicates that the forces always appear in pairs and never alone in nature or separated. That is, an action implies necessarily in a reaction in the opposite direction to that who executed the action. Those forces refer to the forces of nature, but there is a force or cosmic force that acts directly on your life, performing with great power to make you a happy or a sad, frustrated person in life.

That cosmic Law operates continuously throughout the universe and wherever you are, anywhere in our planet, this law will be acting in your life without you noticing it. This act is called the Law of Actions and Reaction or Law of Cause and Effect or Law of Return. It is a law of the consequences of your actions. Everything that happens to you is a result of your previous actions that triggered a similar and directly proportional and similar that is returning for you. Just like a boomerang, the actions that interfere in some way in other.s

lives will always return to you. You choose what you will be sowing, but you can't choose what you will harvest. The universe gives you the freedom to choose what to sow in your life, but the Law of Return requires you to pick exactly what you sowed.

There is nothing extraordinary in this Law of Life and it is nearer than you think. For example, if someone smokes all this life, one day this person will receive back a cancer to his lung. Anyone who steals or commits murder is subject to receive it back sooner or later the deprivation of freedom with a detention in prison. If someone betrays the trust of someone will get unpredictable reactions from that moral deviation. If someone is malicious with others, will receive back the evil that caused or even twice as much. In the bible, we find this teaching of return or bad conduct in Romans 6:23 where Paul says: "For the wages of sin is death. . . ." That is, the consequence of your bad acts is sadness, unhappiness and suffering.

The spiritual Law of action and reaction is continuously working in both negative and good actions. If you do well, you will receive that good back. If you help a person, she will never forget the good that you've made and one day that person might pay for your help. The apostle Paul, in one of his letters says: "Do not be deceived: God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap." (Galatians 6:7). These words indicate that you reap exactly what you sow. If you wish to reap good fruits, then you need to sow good seeds. There is no other means to deceive that spiritual Law which determines people's fate. The most important thing to do is to accept the Law of Return's truth and conduct your life sowing good things in order to receive good things in the future.

NOTHING IS FORGOTTEN

Just imagine an inhabited planet distant from Earth with about 2,000 years-light and if in that world an astronomer discovered our planet and, observing the pictures that got to him, could see what is going on here on earth. What would he see? Cars, roads and skyscrapers? Certainly not, but he would discover a humanity that existed in the time of Christ. If he aimed his powerful telescope to the Italian capital, he would notice a lot of vibrant Ceasers and ancient Roman barbarians or if he even turned his lens to the region of the Palestinians, he would see the Christianity birthplace just starting.

Everything you produce in life through your thoughts, gestures, words, feelings and emotions are not erased or forgotten. They are present in the universe and continually moving future forces that will return to you that power you generated in the past. The record of everything that happens in the world is a “database” called by the Hindu cosmic wisdom of Akashi Records which in Sanskrit means record of space or ether.

KARMA

The word “karma” derives from the Sanskrit word karman which means “action”.In Indian traditional philosophical tradition, it represents all the good and bad actions of men and the return of those actions in the future. The Law of Karma is the same Law of Acton and Reaction applied to the immortal soul, determining that men reap the results of their sowing. In other words, everyone is always subjected to the action.s reaction that they generated.

The Law of Karma is fair, impersonal and infallible, even if you do not believe in it. It is always acting in your life. Therefore, karma is what you produce (seeds) to yourself, to others or to the world and receives it back (the harvest) as a result (the fruit) of what you sowed in the past. If you plant harmony, you'll get harmony, but if you plant disharmony, it will return right back to you. You are responsible for everything that happens to you, even if you don't understand the reason why or the origin of good or bad things that happens to you. Therefore, it is your sole responsibility to attract good or bad things to yourself.

When you are born, you receive two baskets from life: one with flowers and the other with thorns. On your path through life, you'll have a total freedom to choose what to sow on the road. You may opt for the thorns or walk over flowers. On the last day, you'll do a balance on how you lived in the world and then return to the beginning of the same road and start all over again, stepping in thorns or flowers that you spread on the way. However, there is a very important detail: you'll be in your barefoot.

Who is enriched by illicit businesses is destined to get the losses that caused to others. For those who lives with struggle and do good to others, is sowing blessings and joy in him. Therefore, do believe that the Law of Action and Reaction is relentless and always return for the generator of harmony or disharmony to others. Just for knowing that truth that governs the fate of men, that Jesus told that man who hurt the high priest's servant: "Put your sword in its place, for all who take the sword will perish." (Matthew 26:52).

AURA OR SPIRITUAL BODY

Every human being, as every living being, has a halo energy that emanates from the whole physical body and involves it completely. That emanation ethereal creates a magnetic field around the body whose shape, color and brightness indicate the physical, mental and emotional state of a person. The perception of a human aura is possible through a special equipment that captures and shows the halo in photos called kirlian. Also, there are sensitive people, known as visionaries, who are able to understand the human aura with clarity and security.

You must have felt in peace or reinvigorated when you're around some people. In other occasions, you may have felt sad, anxious or uncomfortable when you're close to people who do not send good vibes. This inner feeling is the perception of the aura of another person in touch with yours and is transmitting everything that is happening internally to that person.

Thoughts, feelings and attitudes will determine the quality of a person's aura. A person without moral virtues and a reprehensible conduct do not develop a luminous aura. The vibrations that the human spirit transmits to the outside world will give shape, color and brightness to it, leaving it pretty wide and good looking, if that specific soul is good; or ugly and lifeless if a specific soul is not decent and correct. In order to get spiritual peace of mind and inner harmony in tune with all good things that the universe can provide, it is essential to develop a personality with good moral and Christian values.

The aura of a good, virtuous and holy person extends itself way out beyond the physical body and has a large and luminous vibration. They usually are people with great inner beauty that captivates just by one look and have an indefinable charm. Some, are not even beautiful externally, but have something in their look that captivates and draws the attention of ordinary people.

Every person has a special aura to every thought that he sends. That vibration is called mental aura or thinking aura. It is a reflex of every thought and idea being considered in our minds. Every feeling, words, and actions also act directly on your spiritual body. Through that mental aura it is possible to read minds and evaluate the intellectual and spiritual levels of any person. The good thoughts leave the aura colorful and luminous. However, if a person issues bad thoughts or disturbed thoughts, the aura becomes dark and attracts negative things to us. A person's happiness and prosperity is directly proportional to the quality of their aura. If you wish to be happy and rich, the safest way is to develop a wide, vibrant and beautiful aura.

On the wedding parable (Matthew, 22:1-14), Jesus reveals who can enter the Kingdom of heaven. After the non-appearance of the wedding guests, the king sends his servants to call for the party all men they can find. When every guest was at the table, the king noted that there was a man who did not wear a wedding vest. Then, the king ordered his servants to throw that man out of that big party just because he was not prepared for the banquet.

The evangelical teachings, according to the wedding parable, that every righteous person will be delighting in the kingdom of heaven. However, we can learn another lesson from that parable. Only those who are properly dressed and prepared will receive the blessings of life. The bridal vests that Jesus refers to are the men.s aura. Those who are righteous, good and fair, will always have a clean and beautiful aura. If you wish to attract blessings, opportunities, prosperity and wealth to your life, try to transform and illuminate your inner world and brightens your spiritual body in order to receive all good things you wish from life.

“Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man; but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man.”
(Matthew 5:11)

“There is nothing that enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things that come out of him; those are the things that defile a man.”
(Marck 7:15)

When you imagine something, your thoughts won't be confined to your mind or to your brain. The thought is an energy that is spread beyond the mind, releasing itself into the space as waves. In the same way, emotions and feelings that emanate from the hearth are also spread through waves that could be classified as an emotional vibration.

The psychic vibrations that people radiate are spreading in space are all around you reaching directly to your aura. All spread radiation from people shall, originally come from the spirit. Both thoughts and emotions are formed inside the human soul and manifested externally forming that aura emanating from people, spreading in the form of waves through the environment atmosphere.

These psychic emanations can be classified as good or bad. However, as they are a case of vibrations, it would be convenient to classify them as high or low frequency. A high frequency vibration, occurs when the mental waves oscillate more rapidly in an established time frame. And the low frequency waves oscillate slowly in the same time pattern. Making a comparison, a skinny person is going to produce more steps walking in one minute than a fat person in the same period of time. Therefore, the skinny person is more agile and his “Steps frequency” is higher than the fat one.s “Steps frequency” which is low.

When you send a psychic mental wave (thoughts and emotions), your aura acquires a form, color and brightness according to your mental vibration quality. Generally speaking, everything that is good and correct produce high-frequency vibrations and what is evil and wring produces low-frequency vibrations. Developing a virtuous personality increases the vibration frequency of the soul, while the sins and moral addictions lower those vibrations.

Your aura becomes ugly when you have bad thoughts and cultivates wrong and dishonest conduct, have disharmonic emotions such as selfishness, jealousy, pride, greed, indifference, vanity, anger, sorrow and sadness among other emotions and reprehensible or moral conducts. Moreover, your aura becomes nicer and brighter when you send good thoughts, behaves with dignity towards the others, or has altruistic feelings among other moral virtues able to deploy yourself in society.

Everything that is good and correct approaches you to other people. When you have good feelings, good thoughts and a correct conduct, the vibrations of your aura become faster and vibrate at a high level in a high frequency. On the contrary, everything that is wrong alienates you from people and society, blocking and decreasing the frequency of your vibrations, leaving them with a low-frequency. Thus, everything that brings you towards others accelerates the vibrations of your aura making it prettier and luminous. Anything that deviates you from other people will lower your aura's vibrations making it uglier and lightless. So, doing good and helping others is the best way to improve the quality of your aura.

THE BOY AND THE COAL

“Who throws mud in others, throws even more to himself.” (Thomas Fuller)

“To keep resentment is like drinking poison and hope the other person dies.” (William Shakespeare)

Everything that comes out of you will transform your inner universe changing the quality of your aura. Your conduct in the world will make you a happy or an unhappy person. Once, a boy approached his dad and said: “Dad, I'm very angry. The neighbor's son shouldn't have done that to me. I wish. I wish that everything bad happens to him.” And, crying, he continued: “Peter humiliated me in front of my friends. I want to see him sick not being able to go out.”

His father, a man of great wisdom, leaves the room and goes to a deposit and returns with a bag of coal. “Son, let's play a game. Do you see that white shirt in the backyard? Let's pretend it is your friend. The game is to get a piece of coal from this bag and throw it towards that shirt. Imagine that each piece of coal is a bad thought you're having against Peter. I want you to throw this entire coal in that shirt till the last piece. Then, I'll come back to see how it is doing.”

The boy, finding the game very fun started to throw the stones. As the clothesline was distant, just a few pieces of coal hit the target. After one hour, the boy approaches the father and says: “Dad, I.m tired, but I have finished.” The father takes his son to the bedroom and places him in front of a big mirror. When he looked at him through the mirror, the boy got scared because he just could see his teeth and eyes. The rest of his body was all black spotted. Then the father said: “You see son, the shirt on the clothesline is not as dirty as you are. The same thing happens when you wish to hurt someone. We are the first ones to get messy with the soot that is imbued in our body. Now, go wash yourself because in this state you will not being able to sit at the table to have dinner with the rest of the family.”

A person who does evil to others and causes harm to society is contaminating his own spiritual body with his impurities. There are many people that consider themselves good, Christian and correct, but are full of small sins accumulated throughout life, preventing the diving light to shine upon the heart of their own souls. Your personality is a predominant factor on determining the quality of your aura.s vibrations. Everything that you say, feel and think makes it take shape, color and luminosity that are specifically inherent to yourself.

Jesus, the greatest of all spiritual masters that already existed in this world, taught his disciples that the way they lived determined their spiritual quality. It is not what you eat that makes a person spiritually unclean, but what she through her personality. God recognizes his children by what they are internally and not by the faith they have on Him. On the next paragraph, there are some gospel bible passages about what makes a human soul impure.

Matthew 15

18 “But those things which proceed out of the mouth come from heart, and they defile a man.”

19 “For out of heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornication, theft, false witness, blasphemies.”

20 “These are the things which defile a man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man.”

Mark 7

15 “There is nothing that enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile a man.”

18 “So he said to them: Are you thus, without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside cannot defile him.”

19 “because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, thus purifying all foods?”

20 “And He said: What comes out of a man, that defiles a man.”

21 “For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, and evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.”

23 “All these evil things come from within and defile a man.”

Your aura vibrates according to your personality: thoughts, emotions, feelings, actions and words. A vibration frequency of this entire series will promote an attraction of similar things to your aura. People that are good, generous and charitable will attract good things as they vibrate at the same frequency and harmony of good things that life offers. People that are selfish, coarse, whisperers, proud, materialistic, will attract unpleasant situations as they vibrate in the same disharmonious frequency that vibrate unpleasant things in the world, such as violence, unemployment, crisis, infidelity and dishonesty.

ATTRACTS SIMILAR

*“Life is like a mirror, when we smile at it,
it smiles back at us.”
(Popular saying)*

In physics study, the magnetism is a typical material phenomenon which consists of two poles called north and south. These poles behave as the following: the contrary poles attract and the equal ones turn away. However, when we study the laws of life, the rules are different from that governing the law of physics. That is, the similar attracts similar ones and the opposite turn away. That is the law of equals or Law of similar attracts similar which is the basis of a law known as Attractor.

The Law of the equals is so present to people's lives and so natural and unexceptional that it is not perceived. For example, in a football stadium, the fans are grouped according to the team to which they belong. In an auditorium, the audience is made up by classical music lovers and those who like rock, heavy metal or gospel will be gathering for their preferences. People are attracted to locations that are similar to them and there they can find other people with the same interests. Conversely, it is likely uncommon to find a person in who does not smoke in a cigar store or even hunting if you do not appreciate that kind of sport. If the similar attracts them, the reverse also happens: the opposite turn away. These are some of the examples that people are attracted to sites or communities that are similar to their interests and they turn away from those places that are the opposite to their interests.

You have learned in books about positive thinking that the attraction of your desires occurs by the similarity of your thoughts, but this is a “half truth”. The attraction of prosperity occurs by the similarity with you and not by the similarity of your thoughts. Your thoughts have the power to transform your inner world, once it is transformed, it will attract what is similar to you and in tune with your inner self. Similar causes produce similar consequences. The attraction for the good things you want always occur by the similarity with yourself and not by the similarity with the things you think about or imagine.

You will only be able to attract things that are in tune with your thoughts, feelings, and attitudes manifested in the form of invisible vibrations around your body which constitutes your aura. The basic element of the attraction of everything that happens in your life is yourself according to the dimensions of your aura and soul that is continuously vibrating, is a powerful magnet that attracts things to you. Your thoughts are just the reflection of what you really are in your inner self.

THE MAGNET

You are a powerful life capable to attract just everything in your life, but your desires need to be in tune with yourself and not with your thoughts. You.ll attract good things when you became a good person, but if you.re bad to the world, you.ll just attract bad stuff. The things you to the world will always return someday.

Imagine a magnet in your hands. In your left side there are several nails and on the right side, several jewels. Just for an efficient example, consider the jewels with magnetic properties similar to the iron. Certainly, you want to bring the magnet nearer the jewels to attract them. However, in life you simply attract, the approach occurs by the universe initiative, that is, it is the gold and the nails will approach the magnet, which is you. The prosperity approximation in your life won't happen through a mental exercise. It is not thinking or imagining that you are driving a Ferrari or that you're living in a mansion that will make you rich. That is the biggest myth of the Law of Attraction that the authors aren't aware of. The approximation of everything that happens in life will be in accordance to the Law of Similar. There are magnets with a rough and dark surface; others are smooth and polished. Thus, the nails will approach the ugly magnet, which has a dark and opaque surface and by this magnet the nails will be attracted because they are similar to each other. In contrast, the golden objects will approach a magnet with a polished and clean surface and that reflects the very brightness of the gold. It is by that magnet that the jewels will be attracted because they are similar to each other and the gold jewelry "sees itself" in the magnet's polished surface. Do you now understand that you'll only attract good things if you develop your heart's virtues and a good conduct, making your soul shine and attracting happiness and prosperity?

You must have read that in order to attract prosperity we must be in tune with the prosperity itself. Thus, we'll attract events, people and opportunities that bring prosperity. These books teach how to attract prosperity by means of techniques, axioms and a variety of exercises to visualize your wishes. However, that tuning is processed by your soul and not by your thoughts, because the Law of Attraction is not for the lazy who spends all day laying down on the couch concentrating on their goals. A Law of Attraction for the prosperity works through the similarity with the soul and not your thoughts. A good soul attracts the good things that approach it. An ugly, lightless soul without virtue will attract only the bad things that are approaching it.

It is the good and everything that you produce in other's lives that will make that tuning with the things you wish for. That tuning is the approximation of good things that the universe reserves for all its children with good will. The approximation of wealth occurs only when you become a good and virtuous person. You need to be transformed internally to tune your soul with the blessings that the universe can give you. A life of addictions, defects, poorness and misconduct, will never bring prosperity to the world of any person, as much they do all the efforts through their mental power.

If your aura is dark, you will not get any results in attracting wealth using only the statements and phrases of mental effect to reprogram the brain. You can't only attract wealth by thought because the wealth is not next to you. You are not alike inside to what you wish for. If you're not a spiritually rich person, how do you expect to attract material wealth to your life? The good things that bring job are next to the good people because they are alike. You will only attract a good thing by thinking if your wishes are similar to yourself and not to your thoughts. If you wish good stuff from the world, you'll need to be good to the world. If you wish to be helped, you need to help too.

All that is good in life, such as wealth, beauty, success, joy, happiness, peace, well being and love, will approach those that are good and sow good for themselves and to others. Those things approach the good people naturally because similar attracts similar, and are easily attracted by them through their positive thinking. The Law of Attraction, as taught in the books, works only for those who are served immediately when they wish something, think about something positively or ask it in prayer.

The radiance was depicted in sacred paintings of the past as a halo of light emanating from the head of the saints. That glorious light indicated that those who done good to others had a radiant aura and for that reason many saints performed miraculous cures and manifested paranormal phenomena like being in two places at the same time, occurred with Saint Anthony of Padua and the levitation of Saint Teresa Avila. They purify their aura through charity and prayer and any wish they expressed were seen immediately.

The thoughts and imaginations attract only what is near you. And what are the things that are close to you? Those you have sowed. If you sowed discord, dishonesty, damage to others or evil of any nature, how do you expect to attract wealth with the force of your thinking or through creative practices of visualization? In these cases, the neurolinguistics programming becomes an artificial and inefficient technique.

The magnet is not your thoughts, the magnet is you. It is you who attract things to your life and your thoughts are just an extension of what you are internally. Your thoughts are the fruits of your personality. A mental positive attitude to others will promote your inner transformation and that will change you into a good magnet to good things you wish to attract.

Regarding wealth and prosperity, the attraction occurs by the similarity with a person and not with her thoughts. If the desire finds harmony with the person, she will attract what she wishes and her imagination will enhance the attraction of desire. A harpy person will never attract wealth through their thinking. That person could become rich saving his pennies, but the prosperity won.t flow naturally in that person.s life because she doesn.t have the elements that cause the attraction for wealth. According to the teachings of self-assurance literature authors on the subject of positive thinking, the thing that you mostly focus in your thoughts, will reach into your life. This is true, however, it is necessary that you have a vibrating tuning within yourself on what you intend to attract, on the contrary, your wished will not be manifested in your life.

The powerful sorcerers of ancient Egypt knew very well the Law of Attraction, the Law of Similar and the Law of Return. They did not practice a negative sorcery with the intent to harm someone without first ensuring who was that person to whom they would do evil. This is because the evil that was directed to a good person would not reach him because a good person is not similar to the bad thoughts and the sorcerer.s malicious desires. When the black magic is made with the intention to harm a good person, it returns to its own sender. This knowledge was a secret and only the highly educated priests had this information. It.s when it came to a popular adage that says: “The spell turned against the magician.” It is exactly what happens when the wizard does not know the laws of spiritual life.

HELP OTHERS AND CONQUER THE WORLD

When someone wins the power to achieve everything he wants, that means that his internal aura is harmonized, but if in a moment of uncontrolled outburst or an emotional disturbance, that means he is wishing for something bad for other person, his wishes will be done if the other person is in a vibration tune with the bad things that was wished against her. People with a wrong conduct in relation to life and other people are easily receptive to attract bad and unpleasant things, because they have similar vibrations.

What is taught about the law of positive thinking is that your thoughts are seeds, and you'll reap according to the thoughts that you have planted. If you plant corn seeds, aren't you reaping corn? Your answer is yes. However, I'll say that will depend on the ground you're planting your seeds! Try planting corn in the desert. Will you reap corn? Certainly not, but try to plant cactus in the desert. You will be very successful and will have a beautiful cactus very prickly for you.

That land is you and the seeds are your thoughts that will only bear fruits if the land is suitable to sprout the seeds. The corn seed will grow if the ground is good and fertilized. A corn seed won't grow in the desert, as well as thoughts of wealth won't attract wealth to the life of a person which is not prepared to be rich. Thus, people with a lightless aura cannot attract good things for themselves, using their imagination, because the land is not appropriated for the good seed she intends to grow. To think about only wealth and prosperity won't attract those things if you, the soil, is not fertilized, irrigated and prepared to get good seeds of blessings, joy, happiness, love, wealth, success, fame, prosperity, and recognition of anything else you want.

You must have wished for something with a great desire, imagining that your thoughts in the end, was frustrated for not getting what you wanted. You did not get what you wanted because you didn't think right or because you didn't think hard enough, but because you were not in tune with that you desired. Being in tune is not quite believing you'll get what you wish for. It is similar and worthy to what you wish to attract.

If someone wishes very much to be contemplated to a brand new car drawing, is she going to be drawn just because she wishes and imagines her getting that prize? Does she deserve to win a car if she does not help anyone in life? Isn't that giving to a beggar that will make her win that car the next day? That handout does not make an aura illuminate, not even a millimeter. It's necessary that you make a lot of charity to others to deserve the good things in life.

If your aura is not luminous and dirty by the sins and bad behavior, you'll not be worthy of the good things and it does not matter if you're imagining you're living in abundance as you won't attract abundance to your life. You'll only attract abundance if you have a clean and shiny aura. The prosperity Law of Attraction, as mentioned in the literature, only works for good and correct people, and for those of good will that help others around themselves without expecting a reward, with a detachment and love to others. For them, everything they ask will be done by the universe.

Consider a father with two sons: the first is rebellious, disobedient and only causes hassles for the family. The second is obedient, calm, and observant of his duties and only gives joy to his parents. Which one will be promptly answered when asking for that cool toy of his dreams? The child that is nice will have everything from his parents and the bad one will be just punished. The same happens in the lives of all people. Being good is the only way to happiness and prosperity. Just try to understand that the obedience to the laws of God is the best way to attract prosperity and abundance. Those who help others, also is helping to build a better world and thus, he aids the universe to help others too.

The best way to fill your garden with butterflies and hummingbirds is definitely not running after them, but taking a good care of the garden to attract them for you. The same happens when you wish wealth and happiness. It is necessary to take care of you internally, triggering the mechanism that makes richness get closer to your life for you to be able to attract it. That approach will only happen when you do well and help others. The secret is not on your thoughts or a creative exercise of imagination, but it is in your spiritual and moral capacities to become a good person to attract good things for you.

Whether material or spiritual blessings are attracted by the light that is inside you. It is that light that attracts good things. If there is no light in your inner self, you will be in great difficulty to obtain blessings in life. Every day, you are building your future, producing inside you a spiritual cause for success or failure; to wealth or poverty; to fame or the anonymity, for dreams or to frustrations. A bad or greedy man can think of wealth and happiness. He can even use technical neurolinguistics programming like thinking, wishing and imagining that he's rich, but he won't get it as the good things he wishes for are not similar to him.

The most important component of the universe is men. It is you and everyone around you. If someone harms someone else, also does to the universe and will get it back. In every second you live, the universe is recording your steps in everything and you'll respond accordingly. The universe works as a powerful mirror that gives you back exactly what you've created in the universe.

Jesus knew that the inner harmony and the aura's purity were as important for that wishes were attended, He recommended to his disciples to give an offer before God and reconciled with their brothers: Matthew 5: 23-24 "Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

If you have anything against someone or if you hurt someone, it is very important that you forgive or ask for forgiveness. Your prayers and wishes cannot be seeing while your spirit is hurt for being offended or for being sorry for hurting someone. The sorrow and remorse darken a human aura, preventing their wishes to be sent and seen by the Creator.

FIRST IS THE KINGDOM OF GOD

*“But seek first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.”
(Matthew 6:33)*

Wealth should not be the main goal of your life. The reason you were born and came into the world was to acquire and enhance your soul's light. The wealth is only a natural consequence for those who worries and work their own inner growth and the growth and well being of others. In the New Testament, Jesus teaches the real process to obtain prosperity and success in life: “But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added.” (Matthew 6:33). However, the meaning of your soul is seeking to live correctly, respecting the Laws of God and helping others.

One misconception that some self-assurance books make is to teach that you need first to attract wealth through a positive thought or visualization practices and after you become rich you should share it with others. It is not like that that the Law of Prosperity works, as the true gospel teaches exactly the opposite. First, you should be transformed inwardly and help others, and then you will receive what you wish for. When you do so, prosperity will reach your life naturally, even if you do not wish for material wealth.

The kingdom of God is not a religious organization where you are affiliated. The kingdom of God is the presence of God in you and in other people. In the Bible, Jesus says:

“nor will they say, „See here!. or „See there!. For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you.” (Luke 17:21). And Paul said in his letter for the Romans: “For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.” (Romans 14:17).

If the kingdom of God is the human soul, then that kingdom cannot be a place where prevails greed, pride, vanity, hurt, selfishness, arrogance, in short, anything that moves you away from others. You might be frequently attending a worshiping cult at your church you might praise God, or religiously tithe and everything else that the pastor or the priests recommend. But if you are not good on helping your needy brother, the good things and the blessings won.t be added in your life. First, transform your character. Become a good person that is always ready to help someone. Only so, you can achieve all your dreams according to the words of Jesus when He said that we should seek first the kingdom of God.

Have you noticed that success in life happens for some people without them wanting it or planning it? This happens because they.re already formed a proper environment inside for the good things to approach and those good things being similar to them, they are easily attracted. The prosperity and the success will come naturally in the lives of those people that are not special or privileged, because all men are equal in the essence of God. They only discovered the true path for happiness and prosperity.

In the Old Testament, the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream and asked what he would like to receive. Solomon asks to be able to judge his people wisely and with discernment between good and evil. The Lord then said: “Why do you not ask for a long life or wealth, or the lives of your enemies, but applied understanding to discern what is right, I give you wisdom and which is not what you’ve asked, I give you: wealth and glory.” (I Kings, 3:5-13).

In that biblical episode of Solomon, the Hebrew king claims that the kingdom of God dwell in his inner self. The wisdom to judge between good and evil would make Solomon fair and correct, transforming him in a high moral spirit and a well illuminated aura for the good he’d do to his people. Solomon’s desire to help others in first place attracted wealth and greatness as this is the path to prosperity since the beginning of human civilization.

St. Francis, in his prayer, teaches men a formula to reach success and prosperity when he said: “It is giving that we receive.” However, he says: “It is receiving that we give.” Because that Saint practiced and knew the holy laws of God that provided happiness. When you help someone, or you make a good deed, you are moving the spiritual forces in the universe that predisposes to prosperity. After a while practicing good, everything that you do or wish will result in success, as you have distributed so much good for other that life generously rewards all twice as much for you.

There is a mystical axiom that says: “When the disciple is ready, the teacher shows up.” The depth of this teaching reveals, among other interpretations, that a disciple must be ready to receive the teachings of his master. The wishes to receive wisdom and knowledge, but the master will only reveal it when he is ready. A master won’t show up if his apprentice is proud, conceited, arrogant or snob. Remember that those moral decreases the emanation of soul frequencies and the apprentice will not be able to receive from his master a privilege to share his wisdom. Similarly, his inner master will only appear after his is prepared to receive it. This preparation consists of becoming clean, free of selfishness and all the imperfections stain in his aura. First, change your attitudes, be good with people and then you may have everything you wish from your inner master.

Aristotle assigned the following thought: “Everything will be ready before the spirit is ready.” I don.t know if that sentence is really from the old Greek philosopher, but it reflects the necessity of a human spirit to be prepared to receive what it wishes for. All you wish to receive is already available in the universe, but you need to be prepared for it. Nobody conquers anything if not properly prepared. The spiritual preparation for the prosperity consists on thinking good of yourself and the others. Living this way, your soul gets light and power of attraction for wealth and blessings.

DO NOT FORGET THE MAIN

*“And He said to them: Take heed and beware of covetousness, for one.s life does not consist in abundance of things he possesses..
(Luke 12:15)*

There are people that get rich without helping anyone. On the contrary, they exploit their employees; they cheat and encourage public official.s corruption. They are smart and hard working people, but also selfish, greedy with a nonfraternal character. These are the examples of unhealthy enrichment, as the consequences of their actions will return one day for themselves. These rich men receive wealth from the universe, but forget the most important thing in life which is them. The kingdom of God is of greater value in our lives and if we neglect our spirit, we'll walk straight to a road that will lead right to an inevitable suffering. Read the oriental story below and think if you are giving value to what is most important in your life.

Once, a poor woman with his child on her lap walked by a cave and heard a mysterious voice that said from inside: "Come in and take everything you want, but don't forget the main thing." When she got inside the woman was surprised with the huge amount of wealth in front of her. A lot of gold jewels, precious stones and other great value objects. Surely the voice said again that she could get everything she wanted within ten minutes and after that time, the cave's door would lock itself up forever. That voice also told her that the most important thing would not forget the principal. The woman quickly put the child in a secure and safe corner and started to gather everything in front of her. She could not stand the weight of so many jewels and golden coins, and she gathered little by little out of the cave and came back again to get more. Every minute that passed, the woman kept hearing the same voice that said: "Do not forget the main thing." And then, she struggled to get more and more of that treasure. On the last minute, trying to make the most of that opportunity, she took the biggest possible load of treasure and left the cave that soon got closed. After several minutes contemplating that immense fortune she remembered something terrible: she had forgotten his son in the cave; she just forgot the most important thing in her life. She had forgotten the key.

If you think that it is important to get rich first and then share with the poor, you are at the risk to lose the most important thing in your life which is yourself, your soul. Firstly, do well, be good and then the success and prosperity will come naturally to you. The parable of Lazarus teaches how dangerous it is to conquer riches before being transformed internally. Jesus knew how risky it would be for Him to be rich and not have the kingdom of God manifested in his soul. The man who feasted with his friends and family and lived with abundance, was not sent to hell because he was rich, but because he had a hard heart, lived in comfort but ignored Lazarus who ate the crumbs that fell from the table and the dogs came to lick his ulcers. That rich man had not developed the kingdom of God in his personal life. He did not practice charity by feeding Lazarus and healing his ulcers. Jesus knew that those who conquer wealth without having a good and charitable heart hardly will enter the kingdom of God: “And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.” (Matthew 19:24). The same lesson is found in Mark 10:25 and Luke 18:25.

For this reason, the Nazarene master taught that you should first look inside your inner self, developing the qualities and virtues of the spirit that will create a barrier of protection against those defects and addictions of the soul that will emerge with the arrival of wealth such as pride, vanity, lust, cupidity, greed, among others.

HELP OTHERS AND CONQUER THE WORLD

Some people, who have not yet developed the kingdom of God inside them, express the desire to do good when they get rich. They make plans and promises to help people when they get rich. However, if they make no small charities before prospering, after the fortune arrives more there will be a desire to accumulate wealth and enjoy the gained wealth. If you want to be rich and happy forever, first take care of your spiritual life and help other every time you have a chance and later, you'll get what you wish easily, even if you ask God, as He knows what you need before you ask.

Wealth does not attract happiness, but happiness attracts wealth. There are many people in the world that is rich through their hard work, saving their economies, violating laws, harming and exploiting others. When they conquer their dreamed wealth, they become sad, lonely and depressed. They did not seed well and chose to keep all their money for themselves. They become rich, but unhappy. However, happiness attracts wealth because happier people are more productive. They work with passion and enthusiasm in everything they do. They are naturally successful in their profession and personal life. A person who is spiritually happy attracts prosperity because happiness and prosperity are similar to each other.

The Greek mythology tells the story of King Midas that got from god Bacchus the power to transform instantly in gold everything he touched. In the beginning he was thrilled and very happy, as he became the richest man in the world. However, it didn't took very long to realize that his power to attract wealth caused him a lot of sadness and despair for not being able to feed himself as he transformed anything he ate in gold. Midas then, asked Bacchus the same wisdom Solomon asked God to govern his people. The result was sadness and unhappiness. This is what happens when someone first search wealth and fortune and forgets the virtues of the soul and heart. The real happiness comes from the happiness generated in other people.s lives. A truly happy individual and in peace with himself attracts opportunities, benefits and facilities that will help him prosper as he lives in harmony with the Laws of God, always obeying them.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

“You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and gives light to all whom are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father in heaven.”
(Matthew 5: 14- 16)

This bible teaching clearly shows that a good charity work will bring light for you. Your soul shines every time when you practice the love and the more you help others, more that spiritual radiating shine remains in your soul. Practicing charity constantly illuminates the soul, and makes people beautiful developing a personal magnetism of attraction. This is the path to acquire inner light and to make your aura clean. This is the way your requests will be met, by the similarity with you and not with you think, dream or imagine.

“While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light. These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and was hidden from them.” (John 12:36)

HELP OTHERS AND CONQUER THE WORLD

“He who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no cause in stumbling in him.” (I John 2:10)

“For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light.” (Ephesians 5:8)

“You are all son of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness.” (I Thessalonians 5:5)

The light attracts all that is beautiful, good, harmonious and happy. The absence of light attracts disharmony, sadness, debts, failures and disappointments. It is not only by positive thinking that you are getting success and wealth in life. First, you must change your inner world, acquiring a bright and beautiful aura for your thoughts and imaginations to enhance the attraction of your desires. Without a clean and smooth aura, the abundance thoughts will be innocuous and will not attract anything. God knows His children through the light that emanates from their aura. Thus, life can only answer prosperity requests from those who have an internal light and for this reason they are called “sons of light”.

THE POWER OF THE SOUL

There is a wonderful Diving Light inside you. That spiritual light always shines when you live in harmony with the universal laws that governing the lives of men on Earth. When you help others or almost any gesture of kindness or perform any action that results in a good deed to any living being, your divine light is internally manifested. The more you help others, more spiritual light will shine and remains ignited. But if you are not doing any good to others, that light will be eclipsed by the sins and the materiality of worldly life. If you make mistakes, crimes or any actions that adversely affects others, your internal light declines rapidly until fully cleared. However, the Divine Light is always present in the essence of the soul. The more that light shines, more power you will acquire to attract anything you wish. That is how you become a super man or a super woman.

Jesus Christ was the most powerful man that ever existed on the face of the earth. His power went out of Him because he was a perfect man and transmitted in full His divine Light that existed in His internal world. That is why Christian theology believes that Jesus was God incarnated in a man's body. Once, a woman was healed from an hemorrhage just by approaching Jesus. Her aura that soon realized an energy getting out of him: "And Jesus immediately knowing in Himself that power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said: „Who touched my clothes?. (Mark 5:30). "But Jesus said: „somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out of me.. (Luke 8:46). The power of Jesus came from his magnificent aura that extended for miles of distance, healing and attracting anyone who approached.

Virtue and goodness, faith, mercy, forgiveness, goodwill, compassion and charity are spiritual forces that produce inner light and that light attracts success, prosperity, cures for diseases and realizes all your dreams. The realization of any good and fair desires will only come true if the soul emanates spiritual light as those good and pleasant from life are next to all good hearted souls as determined by the Law of Equals.

If you have many more virtues, and if your aura is clean and luminous, say with conviction daily: "I want this...", "I will get that..." and you will get what you wish. The time to see your wish realized will depend on how much light you have inside. The holy man quickly realizes everything he wishes or plans. Only the saints can perform miraculous cures as they developed great inner light and their inner light is able to make anything happen. Saints acquired that power thorough by charity and not through faith. No one becomes holy only by faith but for the good they realize to others and the humanity. The manifested divine light in an aura is an existing power inside you able to attract all the goods that the universe can offer. If you actions in life are service and volunteer work for the good of others, all you wish will be realized.

Jesus Christ was a holy and perfect man. He just said once and His desire was attended instantly, as His soul has intense light, a sun of virtues and power. Neither is true that Saul (later Paul) of Tarsus was temporarily blind to see the wonderful radiating Divine Light. In Mark 1:40-42 and Matthew 8:2-3, there is a history of a leper man instantly healed by Jesus. It was not a miracle or a supernatural thing, but a power that is at your scope and to any person applying it in their lives, the true laws of God for happiness and prosperity. Nobody holds the same miracles Jesus did because it did not exist other person in the face of Earth that loved so much the others as Jesus Christ did. Millions of people ignore others and yet receive good things and riches of the world only because they believe in the existence of a God and have faith that Jesus is the Savior.

The master of all masters taught men the universal laws of prosperity attraction that are available for those who want to apply it on their lives. The power to achieve the desires is at your scope, as Jesus said: “Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, or else believe Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to my Father.” (John 14:12). It is the light of the soul that let you with super powers to achieve anything you want. This spiritual power is available to act simply when you develop your inner light by helping others, doing charity, praying and obeying the laws of God that are the universal laws that provide harmony and light. The achievement of that power will not depend on your religion. You do not need to be Christian to acquire that super power, as it comes from within your soul for anyone to realize all that they want to their own lives.

The excessive pride and selfishness are the two major defects of character that differ people from each other. The internal energy vibrates slowly when these moral defects are present in the moral human personality. Selfishness prevents anyone from helping others and to exercise charity in favor of someone in need. A selfish feeling of wanting everything will deviate you from the blessings of life. So Jesus taught the parable of talents: “For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.” (Matthew 25:29). Have what? An inner light. The moral virtues are the richness of a human soul and a powerful magnet to attract prosperity and abundance in material life. For those who have that inner light, will be given everything they ask, and for those who do not have it, even if they have just a few, will be taken away and they will live in poverty and financial struggles.

There are faithful Christians that give their offerings and tithes, but that prosperity never shows. As for others, equally Christians, all the doors are open and the abundance is fully present in their lives. There are readers reading the books on Law of Attraction, practice the self-assertion exercises and creative visualization, but nothing different happens in their lives. For others, once they begin to read and practice, everything starts to process and growing financial opportunities start to emerge. The difference between success and failure or between wealth and poverty is in everyone's internal capacity to help others, creating light to their soul and purifying their aura. Only good people, who do help all the time, donating themselves in benefit of others, will have the ability to attract a legitimate material and spiritual wealth for their lives.

The reason why your wishes are not seen by the universe, despite of your thoughts being turned to wealth and abundance, is because you are not doing a minimum good necessary. Not doing evil is not enough as you will not produce any spiritual light and your aura remains lightless. Doing good will prevent you from doing evil and from the temptations of the sin, because he will live in his own spiritual light generated by the practice of good works. The Law of Attraction will not act in the lives of evil.

YOUR SUCCESS IS HELPING OTHERS

“There is one who scatters, yet increases more, and there is one who withholds more than is right. The generous soul should be made rich, and who waters will also be watered himself.”
(Proverbs 11:24-25)

Alfred Adler (1870-1937) was an important Austrian psychologist and founder of the individual psychological development. In one of his books, Adler summarized the following works that we looked forward to transmitting them to you: “It is the individual who is not interested in others are the ones who have the greatest difficulties in life and cause the greatest harms to others. It is among such individuals that we are able to see all human failures.”

Have you noticed that every company, official or service provider that cares about their customers and have a sincere desire to help them is successful in their business and in their lives? That occurs because it is a natural law of life, in which a person who helps others is helping herself. Everything that promotes benefits to others triggers a spiritual approach mechanism to attract good things for those who do well. The good, nice and pleasurable things come from an existing harmony in the human soul that draws the harmony that is present in life.

In our world, everything that is carried out to bring charity to others will always have a happy outcome. Any enterprise that is planned and conducted with the intention to help their clients or consumer is destined to have success and wealth. The turnover of any company will always increase and they perform a distribution of gifts, bonuses and rewards because those strategies will benefit the customers. That is the basic foundation of prosperity: to help and benefit others. For you, the others are people you find in the course of life and for a company or business; the other is the client and the consumer. Every time a person is benefited, the prosperity approaches the one who benefited them. You certainly know that everything made with love becomes a success and everything which is successful will result in wealth. So, doing any job or business with love, thinking about the benefits the others will receive with it, will inevitably attract prosperity. This might even be considered as scientific, as anywhere in the world that is how it works for the attraction of success and prosperity.

In everything you do, always think to help others. If you are a businessman, think on the satisfaction of your clients, consumers and suppliers. If you are a boss, think on the welfare of your employees. If you are an official, do your job thinking on the satisfaction of your supervisor, but do not fawn. If you are a service provider or a small business owner, do everything possible to make your customers happy and satisfied. If you are married, take good care of your family. Help your friends and relatives to receive from them the help when you're also in need.

The law of prosperity and wealth is this: the more you help other people, more you will be helping yourself in everything you'll need. This is the way to a victorious and prosperous life. If you do not help, don't expect miracles. The universe helps those who help others. If you are always worried about yourself, you're unable to receive help from the universe. God cannot deliver blessings in your hands if they are closed. Be generous; open your hands to those in need of your help.

One of the employees of a factory observed that his supervisor, the founder of General Motors, William C. Durant, was working late. Once, with no one asking him, that employee decided to work late because his boss might need some help. Durant was really always in need of help and started to call the dedicated staff to assist him. After some time, that employee became Durant's right arm and the distribution president of GM automotives. To gain success in life, the positive attitudes are more important than positive thoughts.

Everything in life that is based on the basic spiritual principle of "HELPING OTHERS" will inevitably result to success. In order to prepare a business plan, one of the main things that the entrepreneur must clear out is that his business will meet the need of the market. A company's future is directly tied on the aspect of how that new business will benefit people. "Answering the market's needs" is the expression in the business world for that spiritual principle that attracts wealth: help others. If a lot of people are helped, the universe will return with lots of wealth. But if only a few of them are helped, or even harmed, that business will slip towards bankruptcy. What is the best way to become a millionaire or a billionaire with your business? Is that selling expensive goods for a few customers or selling cheaper goods for a lot of customers? It is clearly the second option, that which encourages more people, resulting in larger profits. The world's biggest fortunes are made from business models that took the popular prices, allowing more people to be benefited. More people gets helped, more will be the profits that the universe will provide.

It was taught you that a positive thinking and a creative visualization are likely to attract success and prosperity, just following three simple steps to ask, believing and receiving. Positive thinking is an immediate cause, but the basic cause is the inner harmony and worthiness to receive what you want. The positive thinking is a more important condition but not fundamental. That essential condition is an inner harmony provided by charity and the effective action to do well. When you help others, the negative thoughts are banned from your mind, the enthusiasm and self-esteem invade your soul and you naturally adopt a confident and optimistic posture in everything you do or plan. Thus, a positive thinking and imagination will gain great power of attraction and transformation of your life. Helping others produces an emotional reward of joy and everything you want in this inner scenario will be received with great joy and speed.

The basic cause of Oprah Winfrey's success is not directly related to the positive thinking and the optimism that she has towards life, but to the charity and the enormous aid that she provided to the less favored. The more good things you bring to others, more contentment and satisfaction you will have in life and more abundance of material resources will come to you, even if you do not ask for them. Doing a lot of charity will make a person happy and then rich. All you do to become an honest, generous, friendly, brotherly, tolerant and patient citizen will bring an inner peace that creates a favorable condition to achieve your goals in life. The inner harmony provided by charity practices and prayer is fundamental for the success in all areas of human life.

The examples and evidences to why it is worthwhile helping people are many. In 2000, Bill Gates created the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation which is the largest philanthropic organization in the world. The objectives of this institution of charity is to promote an improvement of living conditions, combating poverty and to do researches to combat the major diseases that affect the third world countries. According to an article in Forbes magazine in 2004, Bill Gates had donated about 29 billion dollars for charity since the year 2000. In 2007, Bill Gates drops to a third position in Forbes magazine's ranking of the richest men in the world. With the financial crises of 2008, the technology sector was one of the most affected, but Bill Gates had the least lost that year. Bill Gate's patrimony was reduced in 18 billion dollars and Warren Buffett and Carlos Slim Helú's was reduced in 25 billion each. So Bill Gates became the richest man in the world in 2009. It was not a mere coincidence that Bill Gates had the least financial earthquake that shook the world and yet to be the richest man in the world. The Laws of the Universe are infallible and are always working for those working for the well being of others. Although that was not his goal, Bill Gate's philanthropy was Bill Gate's savior from the greatest losses of his life. When a person helps others, will not lose their time and only earns dividends, whether material or spiritual. See how great is helping others: Bill Gates donated over 29 billion dollars to charity and still remains the richest man in the world!

Google has become a worldwide success because they managed to help internet users with substantially relevant search results. The powerful search algorithms return fast and usually in top positions for free. If it was not for the great help for millions of internet users around the world, Google would not be the largest worldwide phenomenon of the digital age. More people you help, greater are the opportunities for you to succeed in life and gain wealth.

A recent world history has shown that the speculative business models presents a selfish enrichment form that causes great harm to the society and the economy. At the beginning, everything seemed to work and money flowing that easy, but the universe always returns with damages for those who means of enrichment. The speculation is a business model that does not help others, does not generate wealth nor manufactures any means of consumption for the well being of people. The speculative business can be profitable in the beginning but are destined to fail. The financial crises that shook the world recently, proved that if a business is not based on the spiritual rules of “helping others” it will not be successful and will attract losses and failures.

Another aspect of that principle is in the spiritual power that some men have over other men. Why do you think God gives power to a few privileged that are responsible to conduct the destiny of others? Why God allows some men to become kings and emperors, presidents, prime ministers, senators or any other elective position? Is to enjoy the pleasure to be served and honored by men? Certainly not. God gives power for some people to serve nation and society, or to help people whose destinies are in their hands. If you wish to be a successful Politian, then you should keep in your mind that you need to serve the nation, the people and also help other people who depend on your decisions. The privilege of having power in your hands is not for a personal ego satisfaction, but to help and protect those who are subordinated and subject to the authority of a ruler or a people's representative.

According to a Japanese writer and philosopher Daisaku Ikeda: "Those who help with their members with enthusiasm to develop themselves and to become great people, while watching them happily and supporting their growth, are leaders among leaders." "The true leader is the one who give up his own interests in favor of others." It is not the majority's choice that makes a legitimate power. The power is only legitimate when it is exercised for the common good and for the aid of everyone under the authority of who has that power. The ruler that is faithful for his mission to serve and help society will have a guaranteed success throughout his public career. God gives power for those that are willing to help others. Those who use their power for their own interests will receive serious consequences from universe laws which results in court cases, bad reputation, imprisonment and painful karmic consequences in the future.

Helping your neighbor is a spiritual principle that leads to happiness, success, prosperity and everything good that the universe can offer to any person carrying out that principle into their daily lives. An employee who helps his employer is successful in his job. The boss that helps his employees creates a prosperous and profitable company. The entrepreneur who helps his clients planning to satisfy their necessities and expectations will attract wealth for his business. A politician that helps and works to attend his electorate will have a guaranteed success in his public career. Even the government that helps its people offering freedom and opportunities of economic growth, without any tax abuse, transforms any country in a rich and prosperous nation.

The golden rule of happiness and prosperity are in the following words of Jesus: “Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and Prophets.” (Matthew 7:12) and “And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise.” (Luke 6:31). To make your business a success and attract wealth, you should think on the customer.s satisfaction, and developing a sincere desire to make him happy. That is the foundation of success in everything in life: to make others happy.

CHARITY

*“Blessed is he who considers the poor;
the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.”
(Psalm 40:1)*

Do your charities selflessly, silently and in secret, as God knows all things that you practice and in an appropriate time He will pay you. Do not help someone expecting for an immediate reward. The best benefits are those that arise spontaneously and manifest the gratitude of a received assistance, surprising those who did well.

Charity transforms a lightless aura into a luminous one, and in this condition, prosperity will be attracted easily. The biblical text below confirms the words of this book: “Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out; when you see the naked, that you cover him, and not hide yourself from your own flesh?” 8 – “Then your light shall break forth like the morning, your healing shall spring forth speedily, and your righteousness shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.” 10 – If you extend your soul to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul, then your light shall dawn in the darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday.” (Isaiah 58: 7,8,10).

The good deeds you do in life purifies your soul from committed sins in the past and you acquire spiritual light to attract all the good, pleasant and beautiful things. Doing good illuminates men, as Jesus said: “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.” (Matthew 5:16). It is clear that charity is a spiritual resource capable to produce light to the human soul. It is exactly that interior light that makes a person beautiful, developing a captivating personal magnetism, attracting the attention of other people. When a person guides his life on the disposition and a willingness to help others, it is very natural that he becomes attractive to those who are around him.

Do well to other people, especially for those you know that will not return the aid that you gave. This, the universe will realize your dreams or repays with what you are more in need of help. The value of a help to another person is directly proportional to your interest on thinking in others than in yourself. If you help someone thinking on getting some future benefits, you have no spiritual benefit. You must help others for the pleasure of helping only for that God may help you when you most need it. Doctor Ivo Pitanguy is a very successful plastic surgeon, famous and rich. In addition to his talent, the secret of Dr. Pitanguy's success is on his conduct towards life and the others. In an interview for the newspaper “o Dia”, he said: “What I like to do is helping the human being. It gives me a pleasure even taking a thorn out.” Helping others is the key to success.

The kindness and charity is the key to a spiritual success in life and this book is putting it in your hands. This is the real secret to a path that will take you to wealth and happiness that God makes available to men. Greedy and selfish people can even be rich, but they are not happy and what we offer in this book is just the way for happiness and wealth. Paul of Tarsus says in one of his epistles: “I say this: those who sow little will reap little too, and those who sow in abundance, in abundance will reap.” (I Corinthians 13:6). See the relationship between giving and receiving that this biblical verse teaches us. Thus, you may conclude that the most important thing is to sow enough good stuff in life to others in order to deserve from life the abundance of good or anything you wish for.

Do not expect that luck will help you if you don't help anyone. Many people lose money in casinos and lotteries in a vain hope to become rich. They just don't know the laws of life and they live in illusions. They believe, as the selfassurance books taught so, and they just go imagining things and boom! It happens. The spiritual universe is wiser and more powerful to be fooled by imperfect and selfish minds.

St. Basilio expressed himself that way towards charity: “A man that strips other man from his clothes will be called thief.” And anyone who does not cover a beggar.s nudity will deserve another name? The bread that you greedily keep belongs to the hungry and to the naked man belongs that mantle that you keep in your trunks, and to the one in his barefoot, belongs the shoe that rots in your home and to the miserable, belongs the money that you hide.” God does not want that you give everything you have to the poor. But if you feel in your heart you should do it, then do it and a great reward will be given to you afterlife. But if all donates a little, there would be no poverty in the world.

Charity do not consists of giving alms to the poor. There are many ways of doing charity without a donation of money. You can also make charity treating well the others, being polite and respecting others as you.d like to be respected. You can donate your time, knowledge or forgive other.s faults. You can have good thoughts about the others, abstaining yourself from evil, and always have a friendly word and never be rude to anyone. These are the examples of charity practices and love for others without having to give money. Thus, never despise or ignore anyone, whoever he is, as we are all brothers and equals before God.

The way you treat other people is so important that Jesus condemns the offensive. No matter how faithful you are in Christianity or Jesus. You will be judged on the last day for your conduct towards others. It is written likewise in the Gospel: “You have heard that it was said to those of old, „You shall not murder, and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.. “But I say to you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, “Raca!. shall be in danger of the council. But whoever says, „You fool!. shall be in danger of hell fire (Matthew 5: 21-22). Being generous is not only giving alms to the poor, but also being tolerant, caring and fraternal with other people, respecting them and never expressing any prejudice feelings towards the others.

THE DETACHMENT

Harish was a very poor guru who believed to be fully detached from material riches and lived from the alms he received from the pilgrims who went to Ganges. He was very proud for having only tow loincloths as it was his only assets in life. One day someone told him about a master that would be the most detached person that ever lived in India. Not believing that someone else could be more disinterested on material goods than himself, Harish decided to meet that master. When he arrived to the address indicated to him, he was disappointed because he found a sumptuous place with great wealth. He even thought to be in the wrong address, but after a while he verified that that was really the address he was looking for. He knocked the door, and was attended by the mansion's servant. Harish introduced him and told the servant why he was there. The servant invited him to come in to stay in one of the bedrooms for a bath, a good meal and then he would be lead to the master's presence. Then, Harish took the opportunity to change his clothes and washed his dusty thong and left it drying in the room. When he finished his meal, the servant took him to the master's presence which received him with great joy and he invited the visitor to have a tour in the palace's woodland to learn what one had to teach to another. Sometime later Harish looked back and saw the palace on fire, and the wise was not disturbed with that and said that his servant would solve the problem. After a while, the fire increased and Harish became very worried with that situation, but the wise, very calm and impassive, said that the most important thing in that moment was for them to seize the opportunity to be together to share their wisdom. After a few minutes, the fire was spreading in a great part of the palace and Harish, very worried says: "Aren't you going to do anything? Your palace is on fire!" Then the wise man, without knowing why Harish was so concerned, said: "I know, but why are you so concerned about that? Without holding his despair, Harish runs towards the palace shouting: "Why is my thong in there? My thong is on fire!"

Many people are poor or are in financial difficulties because they are attached to material things. They are so attached to material things that become selfish and greedy and are unable to practice any charity or love to others. When Henry D. Thoreau said that “A man is rich according to the number of things he can renounce.” He revealed a profound truth on the spiritual mechanism to attract wealth. A person, who can truly be free from material goods, might be able to help others with a love and compassion feeling, without expecting any reward for that good practice. The attachment to money prevents any person to practice charity. To be rich, you must first learn to detach yourself from money and be generous with others.

EVERYTHING WILL BE WELL REWARDED

There was a man that had no virtue in his soul, and lived a life full of addictions and sins. One day, he got home very late after a night out and he went straight to bed, but he could not sleep as a cat, which had fallen into a well near the house, cried desperately. He turned and tossed, he put the pillow on his head, but nothing worked. As he kept listening to the cat's shouts, he had no other choice but to get up and go rescue the cat. Even though he went out to the well grumbling and threw a rope to the bottom of the well and then removed the cat, after that he returned to bed and fell asleep. Some year later, this man died and went to a purgatory and stayed there for a long time suffering until one day an angel passed by near that place and he heard the repeatedly lamentations of that man. His screams was so painful that the cries of pain moved the angel that he stopped and tried to find out from where those weeping came. He walked a bit towards that voice and found out that it came out from a pit so odoriferous that the angel took a step back. Covering his nose, the angel looked down and saw that horrific man claiming for help. The angel could not do much as he did not have a rope to take him out of there. Then, he got away from the well when he listened to the voice of God that said: “Go back there and look again”. When he looked, he saw the very same man who saved a cat from the well and in that instance the angel appeared next to a rope. Then the angel threw the rope and saved that man. The moral of this story is that all the good you do in favor of others will not be forgotten by God. Despite of doing well to others, or you don.t become a millionaire as you wish, or do not realize the greatest dream of your life, be calm because God will not forget of any gesture of love you do for others and you will be rewarded some day.

GIVE FOR FREE WHAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED FOR FREE

“Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and Prophets.” (Matthew 7:12)

An evangelical moral is rather logical and coherent. Jesus taught nothing that absurd or impossible to be practiced. In Matthew 10:8, Jesus recommends: “Of grace you receive, of grace you shall give.” Reading the bible passage you can notice that what we receive without any efforts should be given for free. If you receive an inheritance, why are you going to keep all those assets if it was not fruit of your hard work? Donate a part of it, a part of the stock exchange profits in any business or speculation trade. You do not have to donate everything, but do some charity with a portion of the money received as a statement that you are thankful to heaven, and that.s what God expects from you.

In January 2007, a German radio asked their listeners what they would do to win one hundred thousand Euros. A man was prepared to spend four weeks naked in a cage with some monkeys at the zoo, a woman wanted strip all her teeth out to keep all that money and another individual was prepared to swim in a waste treatment plant. But there was a truck driver Marco Hilbert who won that competition with a most original idea: distribute to a crowd $\frac{3}{4}$ of that prize in a public event. Hilbert did not suggest any absurd idea and was just wondering receiving that prize; nor used any creative techniques of wishes. He won the prize because he chose to help other people. He put the word of God in practice that says to give for free what you received for free. The selflessness and detachment of that man did not make him rich with twenty-five thousand Euros left, but made him a winner and worldwide known.

Once, a very rich man died and was knocking at the gates of heaven. St. Peter appeared and wanted to know what he wanted. That man said he was very rich in life, he employed many people in his factory and just before he died, still in the hospital's bed, he left all his fortune to some charity institutions. Thus, he considered that he was entitled to go to heaven. St. Peter listened patiently and explained: "You were very rich in the world, and employed many people, but never made a donation to a school, an orphanage, an asylum or to a hospital. You had accrued benefits and did the most you could with them..." Before St. Peter finished, the old rich man protested: "How did I not donate? I did donate everything to the orphanages and asylums before I died!" Then, St. Peter explained: "You did not donate it, you just left it. Donating means sacrificing your own interests in favor of others.. It is giving up comfort and tranquility to help someone in need of help. It is postponing a very important purchase to help someone. A donation is giving and renouncing the unnecessary pleasures of life, while leaving something means unconditionally abandoning all the goods only because you could not bring them to the other side.

*“What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works: Can faith save him?”
(James 2:14)*

Some Christian churches teach that it is important to do charity for the men.s salvation, as men are only saved by the grace of God through faith. They teach that a Christian.s salvation is by faith and then he can go and practice charity. This lesson creates in some Christians, a false idea that charity is not essential for their salvation. For the fact that Christian does not believe that it is necessary do make charity, as they are already saved by faith, is that many people in church is passing through financial difficulties, despite of going to church regularly and be a observant of religious obligations established by the church. Some religious leaders should encourage more charity and to help others, because it is through the practice of good deeds and volunteering that will bring prosperity to the lives of any person.

The theological concept that men is saved through faith get Christians away from the true Gospel of Jesus that says exactly the opposite: that salvation is the fruit of charity and good deeds. A Parable of tare and wheat should awake those who believe that doing good deeds will not lead to salvation. In that parable, Jesus says categorically that the men that will be saved on the Final Trial will be those that helped others. Check out the whole text in Matthew 25: 31-46.

In an argument between faith and charity, the Apostle Paul makes it clear the superiority of one of those two sentiments: “And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.” (I Corinthians 13:13). Yes, the expressed love practiced on good deeds, is the greatest feeling that anyone can develop for the guaranteed salvation. The real saved man, according to the gospel of Jesus, is the one who does well and not the one that has only faith of a simple acceptance that Jesus is the Lord and Savior.

There are people thinking that as it was taught that way, they just need to attend worship services at the church, have faith, do not sin, give their offerings and tithes and that would make them worthy of wealth and prosperity. However, the most important than doing evil, is to always do good and in every opportunity. The true Christian is well recognized by what he does and not by his faith, as many will say on the last day: “Lord, Lord”, and they will not enter the kingdom of heaven. Humanity needs less religious faith and more tolerance and solidarity with others.

In Matthew 23:25-26, Jesus says: “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self indulgence. Blind Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, then the outside of them may be clean also.”

Christians believe that their sins are totally forgiven by the free gift of God, through faith and being washed by the blood of Jesus. If a Christian has no sin and is not in good practices, he becomes empty for God. However, if a Christian is saved by forgiveness of God has no sins, nor the love we acquire through the good deeds. Like a pot of dirty water that were all emptied (by God's forgiveness), and if you do not put clean water, what will be an empty pot of good deeds be useful for? Just to be thrown away.

The spiritual redemption process is not throwing away the dirty water of sins, but it is constantly adding clean water. Thus, that vase's water will become gradually purified through the addition of good deeds, till the day that vase is completely filled with pure water to quench other's necessity of love. That is the fullness of God's love in the hearts of every person.

Charity and a correct conduct are just as important and without good deeds there is no salvation. Below, there is a report of James about faith and good works. Faith without charity is dead, and then faith cannot lead to salvation and attract prosperity. Every Christian, who believe that only faith is sufficient to obtain salvation from God, should reflect on the text of Apostle James.

James 2

14 "...My brethren, if someone says he has faith does not have works? Can faith save him?"

15 "If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you says to them: depart in peace, be warmed and filled, but you do not give them the things which are need for the body, what does it profit?

17 Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

18 But someone will say: „You have faith and I have works.. Show me your faith without your works, and I will show my faith without by my works.

19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe – and tremble!

20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his own son on the altar?

22 Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect?

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says: “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. And he was called the friend of God.

24 You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by her works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is also dead.

Some people praise God at the church and appear to be good and true children of God. But outside the temple, they do not live according what is expected from a Christian, especially in regards to helping other people that for many it is just a detail in Christian life, as having faith, they believe to be already saved by the grace of God. The faith of these believers is similar to a faith that honors their lips, but ignores the obedience of God's will, translated on the moral teachings of Jesus Christ. The Old Testament very clearly sets out the conduct of many Christians who only value the faith: “Therefore the Lord said: „Inasmuch of these people draw near with their mouths and honor me with their lips, but have removed their hearts far from me and their fear toward me is taught by the commandment of men.. (Isaiah 29: 13).

However, as it is taught on modern Christian theology, if a Christian is saved by faith and do not realize good deeds, that means he is not saved, because if he was, he would be the first to make lots of charity. Nobody becomes good only through faith believing he is good. You will become good when doing good things for others. A true saved Christian is that which is always ready to help others as he was saved for that. Good deeds will pass, then, that will be an indication or a salvation thermometer, revealing who is really saved. The one who makes a difference in the lives of others is really saved.

Believing that salvation foregoes the good works of charity is the same as saying something very natural that as a worker receives first his pay and then leaves for work. Nowhere in this world there is an order like that, as the natural and logical order of things it happens as first you go to work and then get paid. Then, the charity, supported by faith should be first applied for the salvation to be confirmed in a Christian's faithful life. The salvation can only be by faith if that faith is on the salvation by good works.

Do not believe in a religious leader who tells that it is not important to do charity and the important thing is having faith. However, even the demons believe in God, what is so special on that faith alone? Isn't that a similar faith of the demons which do not practice charity? (James 2: 19) "You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe – and tremble!" What makes a person a child of God is not faith in God, but the good works he practices. The Christians that do not practice good works won't have a guaranteed salvation, and for that reason, you can safely say that helping others lead to salvation.

THE SPIRITUALS ARE RICHER AND CHRISTIANS DONATE MORE

“He who has pity on the poor lends to the Lord, and He will pay back what he has given.”

(Proverbs 19:17)

The reality of the facts has great power to convince in any argument. Only the truth, presented to the unbelievers' eyes, have the power to persuade a mind that refuses to accept the truth. In Brazil, a country where the spiritism doctrine found a fertile ground for its development, had published in August 29th, 2007, in Globo Newspaper, a research of the Brazilian Institute of Statistics and Geography (BISG), reveals a relationship between family income and religion. It appeared in the report entitled “Spirituals are Richer and Christians Donate More”, that spiritual families had three times more income than the average income of the Pentecostal Christians in a ratio of $3.796/1.271. The BISG research also found that the Protestants spend more on tithes payments, offerings and donations to their churches with about 21.4% of the family income, and may reach 34% among the other evangelical churches. However, the spirituals are those who donate less to their religious institutions with about 8.2% of their income (NOTE 1).

Thus, we concluded that most evangelicals give more offerings and pay more tithes, but they are poorer than the spirituals that do more philanthropy charity. You may not believe on what the message of this book is trying to transmit, but the reality of the facts is there is no chance in denying. Doing charity with the good will of your heart attracts wealth and prosperity, as God favors those who make good deeds. It is not that one who just have faith, but those who help others is a favorite of God and the greatest in His kingdom.

The result of that research was an unequivocal result of this book's thesis. The Brazilian spiritualist are the ones who stands out the most on charity's practice in such a way that one of the main Brazilian Spiritist states that "There is no salvation without charity." A spiritist, as a believer that the way to salvation is practicing charity, easily engages themselves in philanthropic assistance services for the less advantaged. Thus, helping others will increase your soul's vibrations and illuminates your aura, thus attracting, by the similarity with him, which is guided on the practice of good deeds, prosperity blessings for their lives. That explains why some people succeed in life using creative resources of the Law of Attraction and others will not conquer anything and why they do it is much less than they wanted. The difference is on the moral's quality of that person and not thinking about more or less or even to visualize more or less the desire to be conquered.

Christians that belongs to some churches are very influenced by the preaching and are encouraged to make offers and give tithes to their churches hoping of being blessed financially. However, it requires a lot of care with this practice, especially when it is undertaken with a sole interest of getting material and financial favors from God. There are cases of naïve believers who donate cars, buildings and other goods in the illusion of greater values of blessings promised by unscrupulous pastors. This type of spiritualtrade is totally ignores by God and the Law of Attraction will not produce an effect on the thoughts and desires of those who adopt this spiritual posture.

In I Samuel 15:22, the prophet Samuel teaches to King Saul that obeying the word of God is more important than his offerings. Thus, the Christian must understand that to be in compliance with the commandments of God is more important than offerings and tithes to the church and those who does good to others is a true donation directly to God. To give ten Dollars to the poor and satisfy his hunger has more value to God than a gift of Ten Thousand Dollars for a church to pay for its worldly commitments. If a donation made to a church does not reach the poor or the needy, that offer was not for God, but for men. The real offer to God and which generates prosperity in your live is that which will benefit other person, transforming someone.s life. While the spiritists are richer and prosperous for doing more charity, the evangelical donate more to their churches and are the poorest. Keep that in mind dear reader, doing charity is more useful than making offerings and contributing with tithes to your church.

The Aladdin myth represents everyone's desires to see their wishes realized. It is present in humanity's collective unconscious. You may identify universal Laws elements of prosperity and dreams realization in that story. The Law of Attraction only works when a person is prepared to get what they want. As mentioned earlier, the esoteric sentence: "When the disciple is ready, the master will appear" shows that you must be ready for the genius that exists within you to see your wishes.

On the Antoine Galland's version of Aladdin's tale, we highlighted a text where Aladdin, after being trapped for three days in a cave by an old magician that said he was his uncle, came home without knowing that the lamp he found in that cave kept a genius. "Mom, bring me that lamp that I have brought yesterday, because I'll sell it." Aladdin's mother went looking for the lamp, but when she returned with the lamp, he noticed that the objet was dirty. Then she returned again and brought water and sand to clean it. As he began to clean it, a genius appeared of a gigantic size in front of him and said with a thunder voice: - What is your wish? I am ready to obey you as your slave that I am for whom possess the lamp! With fright, the man fainted. Aladdin took the lamp and ordered: - I am hungry, bring me something to eat! Then the genius left and came back soon after with a silver tray which had twelve platters full of tasty food, wine and bread. The genius placed that tray on the table and disappeared.

The universe is ready to obey your orders and see all your requests. But what is necessary to make your genius realize all your desires in your life? Just by rubbing your inner lamp. Note that the Arabic fable said that the lamp was dirty. That is the way many people are: with a dirty aura, lightless and opaque. Then, the genius will only appear when that lamp is rubbed to wipe out the dirt. The Law of Attraction, which is the lamp's genius of the Arabian tale, only works when you promote a cleaning to your aura to make it shine and realize all the good and useful desire to your life and to the lives of others.

When an object is rubbed, its molecules begin to vibrate more and more intensely, giving heat to the object. Similarly, when you accelerate its internal vibrations, through the practice of good word or a habit of prayer, your aura will vibrate faster and as a result of this process, your aura begins to glow as a light or an inner flame. The Law of Attraction does not work with a simple request to a genius of the lamp. What Aladdin did before he made a request to the genius? He rubbed the lamp. This act of rubbing symbolizes your need to clean your aura. If Aladdin did not rub that lamp, the genius would not appear and his wishes not met.

You are a “spiritual lamp” and God is the electricity. When you connect to God obeying His Universal Laws of love and harmony an inner “lamp”, which is your soul, lights up and all your wishes are carried out. Only through the practice of good that you will grow inside and afterwards you will be financially secure. You should work for the good of all. Thus, if you do not increase the quality of your aura through healthy thoughts, good feelings, nice words, honest attitudes and willingness to help your neighbor, your wishes and requests will not be attended by the universe.

The Law of Attraction is a cosmic law and in order for that law to act in your life, it is necessary that you are in harmony with the universe. Those that harm the others cannot be in harmony with the universe and for that reason his requests do not reach God.

The medieval alchemists sought a philosophical stone vehemently as it would be an object capable of transmute any metal into gold or to obtain a potion for eternal life. But the truth is that the philosophical stone is not a magic object the old magicians tried to produce so hardly. The philosophical stone is you! It is you that is able to process your inner alchemy capable of realizing anything. It is your individual fraternal and spiritual transformation that makes you a philosophical stone alive. Anyone may conquer wealth, health and a long life just by making their lifeless and ugly aura into a luminous and beautiful one. That is the inner alchemy to attract blessings to your life, just by blessing the lives of others.

THE PERFECT WOMAN

Nasrudin was having some tea with his friend Mullah and they talked about life and love: - So, Nasrudin, have you never thought about getting married?

– Very much, answered Nasrudin. In my youth, I have decided to meet the perfect woman traveling to distance places. In Cairo, I have met a beautiful and intelligent girl, with eyes that seemed black olives, but she was too courteous and very poor. In Baghdad, I have met a woman of a generous spirit and friendly, but we did not have many interests in common. In Damascus, I have met a religious and hard working girl, but she was not very attractive. Many women have passed through my life, but each of them missed something, or they have something else. Then, one day, I met her. She was beautiful, with a nice scent, calm, happy, intelligent, generous, polite and loved life. She was indeed, the woman I sought for so long. Indeed, she was perfect.

– But why didn't you marry her, man? - Asked Mullah.

– Thoughtful, Nasrudin decided to take another sip of tea and said: Oh, my friend! Unfortunately, she was also looking for a perfect man.

This Sufi tradition tale teaches, among other readings, that you will receive from life according to what you are. Isn't that what we are trying to convey in this book? Nasrudin tried to find a perfect woman, everyone wants a perfect life full of blessings. Everybody wants beauty, health, wealth, fame and everything that brings fulfillment and satisfaction. Are you like Nasrudin? You want a lot of good things but you do not create a similar condition inside you for what you want. Helping people illuminates your soul. The more you do well, more light you'll get and become a magnet to everything good you want for your life.

The worldwide phenomenon of globalization caused by shortening of distance between transportation people and in communication, leads to a new world order: fraternity and cooperation. In this scenario, the approximation and the interdependence that was formed between the countries (global web) put the collective well-being directly linked to the individual welfare. If an economical crisis occurs in one country, other countries may also be affected. That is, that problem can also be everybody's problem.

That interdependence phenomenon is present among global nations, and also has its facet on interpersonal relation levels. Your friend's problem may turn into a problem for you. Even those who believe that their city's social problems are not yours, may suffer with that reasoning mistake. A rich and selfish man that refuses to help a children's orphanage may, years later, be attacked, robbed or kidnapped by those same children he did not help.

Investing on poor people is a new conception of capitalism for this new millennium. In early 2008, Bill Gates pioneered the concept of creative capitalism at Davos. global forum. A new age in the global world was starting: In this new global era, the rich and in development nation's concerns will be to help poorer countries and their excluded communities, with the basics such as food, health, education, access to technology comfort such as cellular, computers, electronics and appliances. The year 2008 is a milestone in the history of this new capitalism. In that same year, Google launched the “Ten Project increased 100” to commemorate its ten years and it consisted in selecting ideas for helping change the world, helping as much people as possible.

The economic crisis that hit richer countries in 2008 could have been avoided if these same countries effectively help the poorer ones from the scourge of hunger. The universe helps who help the universe. If a rich country had helped to stop world hunger, they would also be helped by the universe and would not suffer with the catastrophic sub-prime bubble bursts that emptied slowly and without any health traumas to the worldwide finance.

In 2005, the United Nations Organization released a report “Investing in Development” with an action plan to reduce the world's poverty by half in ten years. To achieve this goal, it would take 135 billion dollars annually beginning in 2006, divided between the rich countries that would donate the equivalent of 0.54% of the Gross National Product (GNP). Just a few countries have contributed, however, the Netherlands, a rare example of cooperation, contributed with 0.7% of GNP and with that solidarity initiative to benefit poorer countries; Netherlands is one of the few countries to escape from the economic recession and will not suffer any impact from the world financial crisis.

In November 2008, the president and founder of the World Forum in Davos, Klaus Schwab, said that the Global Financial crisis had already cost the world five trillion dollars. This is the worst financial crisis since the Great Depression of the 1930s. Rich countries saved 300 billion dollars to reduce world hunger, but were forced to spend 5 trillion dollars to avoid hunger of those who were already with a full stomach. Definitely, not helping the poor is a bad deal for the rich.

The fraternity is the foundation of a new world order, both for the nations and the new millennium individuals. On his inauguration speech, the United States president, Barack H. Obama, made it clear that a new era of social responsibility in favor of others was beginning: “People of poor nations, we swear the we will work by your side to make your farms to flourish and to make clean water to flow; and to feed hungry bodies and hungry minds. And for those whose nations are like ours, enjoy relative abundance, we say that we will no longer tolerate an indifference towards suffering outside our borders, nor consume the resources of the world without caring with its effects. Because the world changed, and we have to change with it.”

Helping others is everybody's duty as being correct and to respect the laws of their countries is an obligation for every citizen. Our planet will only be happy when there is collaboration from systematically the most favored to benefit the poor and the unfortunate. Solidarity and fraternity are the fundamental conditions to the formation of a better world. The world will be good when everyone is good. Similarly, it is the green of each leaf that makes the forest green. Think about it: If you live in an interconnected world with other people, everything you do to someone else means you are actually doing the same to you.

THE MOUSE TRAP

You should have heard about this story. It teaches how important is to help someone as we are all connected and interdependent on each other.

A mouse, looking through his hole in the wall, saw a farmer and his wife opening a package. It was just imagining what type of food could be in there.

But when it found out that there was a trap in that package, it was terrified. It ran to the farm's courtyard and shout:

– There is a mousetrap in the house! There is a mousetrap in the house!

The chicken said:

– Excuse me Mr. Mouse, I understand that this is a big problem for you, but that won't affect me anyway. So, don't bother me with your problems.

Then, the mouse went to the pig and said:

– There is a mousetrap in the house! A mousetrap!

– Sorry Mr. Mouse, said the pig, but there is nothing that I can do. You know that I don't get involved with other people's problems

Then the mouse went to the cow. And she said:

– What is it Mr. Mouse? Is that trap? Am I by any means in danger? I don't think so!

Then the little mouse went back home, dispirited and down headed to face the trap the farmer placed in the house. In that night it heard a noise, like a mousetrap catching its victim. The farmer's wife ran to see what the trap had caught. In the dark, she did not see that the trap had caught a venomous snake's tail, which bit her. The farmer took his wife to the hospital immediately.

When the woman returned home, she was burning in fever. Everyone knows that the best food to feed someone with fever is nothing better than a chicken soup. Then, the farmer took his hatchet and went out to provide its main ingredient. As the disease remained afflicting the woman, their friends and neighbors went to visit them. And to feed the visitors, the farmer killed a pig. The woman did not get better and ended up dying. Many people went to her funeral. Then farmer then, sacrificed a cow to feed all those people.

Next time you hear that someone is facing a problem and believe that problem won't affect you. Remember that when there is a mousetrap in the house, the whole farmer is in danger. Do not forget: someone's problem is everybody's problem because we are connected to each other.

WE ARE ALL CONNECTED

“As the precious stones are taken from the earth, virtue appears from good deeds and wisdom is born of pure and peaceful. To walk safely in the mazes of life, it is necessary to have as good guides the lights of wisdom and virtue.” (Sidharta Gautama Buddha)

The divine light present within each human spirit is the reason why we are all interconnected. Imagine a divine diamond necklace held by an intense luminous string. There are three types of stones in this necklace that are distinguished by the ability to reflect the light of the thread that binds those stones. The first type is perfectly cut diamonds, and with a rare beauty, transparent and in the middle of them we can see the whole beauty of that luminous thread. The second group is very numerous and formed by translucent stones. These stones, not cut with that much detail, are varied both in format and in the capacity to reflect that luminous thread. Some of the stones reflect more light than the others as they are not totally transparent to reflect the thread's white light; they just reflect the most intrinsic color to its interior structure. The third group are also quite numerous. It is the group formed by the opaque and brute stones. These stones, despite of being diamonds, are rough, ugly and do not reflect the brilliant light of the thread. As they are rough diamonds and have not been cut, they are totally without shine and dark though in between these stones pass a luminous tread with an intense and spectacular white shine.

The metaphor presented above refers to the different types of people existing in the world that are compared with those polished or rough diamonds, as are found in nature. The Saints are those stones that convey fully of the divine light present in the heart of the soul. As ordinary people transmit only part of that divine light and the evil people do not transmit any of that God's light, although it is present in the hearts of every man.

The luminous thread, which is God present in the human soul, uniting all the stones of that cosmic necklace, both diamonds of great value and the rough ones. Every stone are connected to each other through this luminous wire and through this divine system, everything a stone "makes" against the other will return for the stone that created that action. When you do something to someone, you are also doing to God which is present in that person which is the same God present in you. Thus, everything you do to another person will return to you as everyone is connected by the same luminous tread. Both the translucent stones as the rough ones represent the imperfect humanity, violent and full of addictions and a variety of sins. While the perfectly cut diamonds are the holy men who have lived in the world and a few are still present among us. The bright tread is the interior divinity, the kingdom of God that Jesus showed in his gospel when he said that the kingdom of God is within us. That luminous wire is the Holy Spirit present inside each human heart. The more purified a person becomes, more he conveys and reflects the divine light that is inside him. This is the eternal path of spiritual evolution.

You have the power to attract anything you want, because that power comes from inside God dwelling in you. While some Christians criticize the possibility of a divine presence in the heart of men, that is the truth taught by Jesus when he said that kingdom of God is inside us (Luke 17:21). The power to conquer your world does not come from you; it comes from God who dwells in you. In moments of crisis and difficulties, those who work helping others, are creating an internal spiritual mechanism for prosperity attraction for the future. Understand that the safest way is to first help others and then the prosperity will come to you.

THE TRUE PATRIMONY

“But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves break in and steal.”
(Matthew 6:20)

Your real patrimony is that nobody can steal. The one that is truly yours. If you have something that can be taken away in any way, being fair or unfair, that property is not yours. It was only borrowed to you. Spiritually, that car you have is not yours, but it has been borrowed by you. If a thief takes your car, it will no longer be yours, so it was not yours, as it was borrowed from life. As a book someone lends you and then you need to give back, every asset is not truly yours.

What is truly yours is that no one can take away from you. The knowledge you gained throughout life such as wisdom, a hobby, your profession is totally yours and no one can take it away from you. A thief cannot steal your knowledge you gained in your profession, or your moral virtues, but he can steal your watch or your notebook. Your moral virtues are also a legitimate patrimony and that nobody can take away from you. If you are an honest person, no thief can steal your honesty for him to be honest. This is the treasure Jesus was telling about: the ones that thief cannot steal, nor moth can consume.

Other real patrimony feature.s is the quality of giving and never be without it. If you have a book about chess game and you decide to give that book to a friend, you will be without that book. But if you teach your friend to play chess, you will still know chess. The knowledge is the true wealth of the spirit, because you never lose and the more you give, more you will have. The wisdom of ancient China has long taught long ago: “Give to a hungry man a fish and you will feed him one day. Teach him to catch his fish and you will be feeding him for the rest of his life.” That Chinese proverb clearly shows the difference between material and spiritual patrimonies. The material one is not yours because if you donate or it is stolen, you will be without that patrimony. However, the spiritual one is always with you and you never lose it. Knowledge, experiences, skills and moral values are your true wealth in life. Nobody takes it from you and when you donate it, you continue with it and you can even increase it. Thus, you should value the “BEING” and not value so much the “HAVING”, as being honest is better than having money. Being good to others is better than having a fat bank balance.

In a wake of a rich man, one of his heirs approached the company's accountant and said: “What my father had left?” And then said the accountant: “He left everything.” You do not have anything that you could not take somewhere else when you die. All his assets are Bank of Divine Providence's loans for your use, but without abusing for your own profit. The assets and wealth that you have or wish to have are only funds that you have to generate to get the real spiritual wealth that you will enjoy in the other side of life. Doing good and helping others is a job whose salary is deposited into a spiritual account that can be redeemed when you leave this life.

The rich man is only an administrator of the goods that God delegated to him. All of us will be called to give an account for the use of every asset acquired in life. Therefore, you should be as your faithful butler, praised by Jesus when he decided to help others reducing the debtors' debts to be supported by them when he was without those stewardships (Luke 16: 1-9). Understand that everything you have is not yours; it belongs to life and God. You are only the administrator and not the owner.

The true wealth for God is the inner health. You get into this world poor of spiritual riches and can leave this world rich from these riches. The material wealth and the opportunities are only tools for the acquisition of spiritual wealth. The good deeds you practice in your mundane existence are transformed into spiritual "Money" after your death. It is with that patrimony that you will be considered a rich or poor person in the other side of life.

YOU ARE WHAT YOU THINK AND NOT WHAT YOU THINK YOU ARE

15

*“What we are is a consequence of what we think.”
(Sidharta Gautama Buddha)*

You are constantly thinking about something and even when you are sleeping your brain is active. The thoughts determine very much what happens in your life because similar thoughts attract similar situations. This is the law applied to the similar thoughts. However, thinking about wealth will not attract wealth for you. This is a myth taught to millions of people and if they think hard enough about money, it would come naturally and even checks would arrive by mail. That is a fantasy. If you think on something you might realize it, but money is not attracted so simply and automatically. If so, the casinos would be bankrupted, as many people would become millionaires just by thinking and wishing to become rich, betting their economies in misfortune games.

It is a mistake to believe that only rich people actually think about wealth. Wealth is not attracted by the concentration of thoughts focusing on wealth. This behavior is so dangerous that it may even lead to fabulous losses. Constantly and obstinately thinking on being rich will form in the human personality a greedy character. When the excessive desire to gain wealth is associated with risky and leveraged business opportunities, sooner or later a chance of failure and the bankruptcy will be devastating.

Because of one man that had this thoughts focused on wealth, the most traditional English investment bank bankrupted in 1995. That man was called Nicholas Leeson and he was the Barings Bank.s derivative operator in Singapore. Leeson.s ambition resulted in losses of 1.3 billion for a 233 years institution that was a faithful depository of most of its personal wealth for the Britain Monarchy. The sad end of this story was Nicholas Leeson arrest of six years and a half and a symbolic sale of Barings Bank to ING Bank for a single pound.

Teaching people that it is possible to be rich only with thoughts towards wealth is a big illusion, and it is dangerous. Therefore, it is very important to seek spiritual things first and then a fortune will come easily. One thing you can be sure: always thinking in abundance does not attract abundance as some authors wrote; it attracts ambition and ambition attracts losses and suffering.

Just thinking of money creates an attachment of the human spirit to material things. The apostle Paul in his letter to Timothy, recommending that we shall not be stubborn to conquer and live for the money: “For the love is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.” (I Timothy 6:10). (NOTE 2)

Jesus also teaches that men.s lives are where they elect their treasures: “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” (Matthew 6:21). If you give too much value for money and prosperity, your life will be stuck to the condition of not having material things. Just thinking about money, making mental exercises of metallization on attraction money like printing a Universe Bank's blank cheque, putting your name and any amount you want or say: "I love money and money loves me" are resources that will make you a person whose values are turned only to material things. Anyone can wish to be wealthy, but only those who are transformed internally are able to attract wealth by means of thought.

Moreover, wealth attraction through your thoughts will not happen because there are many other factors that contribute to building an abundant life, such as work and savings. The use of thoughts to attract prosperity is most effective when it consists of thinking on well-being and everything good for you and others. You should always think about good things and love. So, thinking positively is the beginning of everything, as your thoughts will change you that, once transformed, you will be able to attract everything you want.

Your thoughts, feelings and willing will attract conditions that will transform you and your life, but will not attract wealth, or simply by thinking creatively. Thinking positively will attract favorable opportunities, health, accelerates diseases healing process, and make you patient and tolerant with life's difficulties, producing inner peace.

Your thoughts can change you internally, transforming your soul. You are what you think and not what you think you are. You will be not honest just by imagining you are, but you will be honest if you think with honesty and adopting honest attitudes. Similarly, you will not be rich just imagining yourself rich, but thinking and practicing attitudes that lead to wealth. A beggar is not wearing a king's noble vest. Similarly, you will not become rich just wondering you are. The Law of Attraction, as you learned, does not work this way.

If you need to be prepared for a test, instead of studying, try to spend hours visualizing and thinking on the success of having passed on that test. Do you think you will be successful on that evaluation? The Law of Attraction does not miracles and does not replace the efforts and work. Tomas Edison, a great inventor, held great discoveries working 99% of the time and wondering just 1%. The Japanese Tycoon Soichiro Honda, from an automobilist industry used to say that: "Success is built on 99% of failure." In order to attract prosperity it is necessary to make efforts and by receiving merits and not only by faith or imagination that you will succeed in all your dreams.

The positive thinking is just a mental energy that creates conditions and opportunities for the realization of what you wish. However, success only happens when the opportunity arises and you are properly prepared to seize that opportunity. If you are not ready to receive an opportunity in life, through aura.s vibrations, that opportunity will be wasted and will not prosper. The creative visualization will not produce any effect on people who are petty, selfish, greedy and devoid of any sense of feelings or compassion for other.s difficulties. Therefore, we cannot affirm the only reason a person has not enough money is because they are preventing money to reach them through their thoughts. A creative visualization will just produce a positive result for those who are internally harmonized.

HELP OTHERS AND CONQUER THE WORLD

Consider an incompetent employee that is aiming a director.s position of the company where he works. He will not be promoted just by imagining to be dispatching documents from the director.s desk. I does not matter how his imagination is creative and full of faith, he just won.t be successful. But if on the contrary, he thinks to go beyond his obligations, considering means of increasing the company.s productivity, thinking about how he could help the company to grow, and finally think as if that company were his, in that situation he would have great chances of being promoted to a director.s position. Of course, not just only thinking, but acting according to his thoughts, turning difficulties into professional growth opportunities.

Therefore, you are determined by the way you think in your inner world and not by what you are imagining. You will not bring fortune and wealth just by thinking about it. You will become rich when you decide to adopt thoughts that drive you to take actions capable of generating prosperity. Some examples of personal conducts that generated prosperity: dedication, wisdom, initiative, productivity, study, learning, respect, honesty, sincerity and others and the most important of all is helping others.

Wealth is attracted by those who deserve to receive wealth or are destined to receive wealth to learn to be generous to others. There are authors who contradict this truth teaching their readers that it is not necessary a merit to be rich, just thinking about wealth will do the trick. It is a big mistake. The universe will not prosper lazy and daydreaming prodigals, creatively visualizing a wealth that falls from heaven. Those who are always helping others deserve to be helped in everything they need, they deserve to be seen in everything they ask and should be prosperous and successful on every endeavor in life.

A change of thoughts is the key for transforming your life. You must abandon pessimistic, defeatist or envious thoughts. Adopt a new mindset of hope to begin to change your life. Try to imagine you are happy and then, after a while you will notice an inner transformation. It is not simply imagining that you are happy, but incorporating the feeling of happiness within you, as an actor would do on stage. It is also not pretending that you are happy, or imitate a happy person, because those attitudes are superficial. We must put some passion on a positive result. It is to feel happy, even if you do not have a reason to be happy. Gradually, you will begin to have a new perception of the world and peace will become part of your inner world.

If you want to know how you are intimately, just analyze your thoughts from the last time you were idle to think freely on what you wanted. In these moments, your thoughts are like a bird that escape its cage and go away somewhere it can find kinship with itself. If it is a vulture, it will seek a carcass, but if it is a hummingbird it will fly to a garden, collect some nectar from the flowers. This is you according to your thoughts affinity searching your interests. If everything goes wrong in your life, try to change your thoughts.

An eastern master, Sidharta Gautama Buddha stated 2500 years ago: “What we are today and what we will be tomorrow will depend on our thoughts. If I sin, I will suffer the consequences, if I proceed well, I am purifying myself.”

HELP OTHERS AND CONQUER THE WORLD

Change your thoughts, think about wealth and prosperity, happiness and everything you wish for, but prepare your inner self to attract all of those things. Your soul needs to vibrate in tune with harmony and the universe's beauty in order for you to receive them. If you are a good person to the world, you will attract good and desirable things, but if you are full of faults and reprehensible defects, you will only attract undesirable reactions to your life.

You plot your destiny from the things you think. Talmud teaches how our minds turn men's life through a logical and consistent process:

- Watch your thoughts, for they become words.
- Watch your words, for they become actions.
- Watch your actions, for they become habits.
- Watch your habits, for they shape your character.
- Watch your character, because it determines your destiny.

It is this way your thoughts attract wealth for your life. The attraction's mechanism is far from being a simplistic way of thinking and attracting. In this case, it is not by thinking on abundance that you will have abundance. Or by wishing of being rich or becoming effectively rich, there is a long way to walk which starts by thinking positively. Remember: You are what you think and not what you think you are. You should use thoughts to be transformed inwardly. Once transformed, you will get inner light and wealth will appear in your life.

The universe only helps those who help the universe. Helping others, you will be helping the world and building a better world. This law is general and applies to all: If you wish to reap good things in your life, then you must do grow good things in other.s lives. When you illuminate your aura assisting others, good things will happen in your life.

A PRAYER

A prayer is the moment when you are mentally connected with God or some superior being, angel or saint. A prayer illuminates your soul. When a prayer is in favor of others, your inner light becomes even more bright and beautiful, and your inner vibrations are transformed into powerful magnets to attract good things for your life. In a prayer, your interior light shines stronger, but when you finish it, that light will be gradually erased to a level slightly above from the ordinary.

Charity and prayer are spiritual resources that give super powers for you to achieve any good desires. Praying for others, and asking for the help of God for someone in need of help, turns a lightless soul into an outbreak of light. Those who have a habit of praying for others, is quickly served when asking help for you.

A prayer and the practice of good deeds are the two biggest acts of devotion to God. Praying in favor of others is a gesture of charity and a charity in favor of other is a prayer that God wants to hear. Doing well to others is the best demonstration of love for God, and not even a praise song can overcome. Those who do charity love God. “You lust and you do not have, you murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet you do not have because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures.” (James 4:2-3).

HELP OTHERS AND CONQUER THE WORLD

Not everything you ask God will be given for you. A prayer with an objective to seek wealth, cars, yacht, farms, summer homes or any other material thing, and without providing any material benefit to others, won't even be heard by God. Similarly, the Law of Attraction does not work for those who wish to be rich to enjoy their wealth selfishly, forgetting others' difficulties.

God grants wealth for those who are ready to receive it, giving up resources for anyone in need. Requesting wealth without deserving it and for your own pleasure is the same as a lazy, dishonest and incompetent employee asking for a promotion or a raise to his boss. That is, he will not be answered.

The universe does not reward wealth for your own delight. These are people who are not prepared to become rich because they just want to make fortune to live in luxury and extravagance. They even plan to help a lot of people when they get richer, but before that happened they did not even make a small charity in favor of no one, claiming that it would lack for them.

“He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much.” (Luke 16:10). Just by reading this Bible teaching, you can see that Jesus has taught that a person is what he is; it does not matter if he is rich or poor. If you do not have a habit of charity, why do charity when you are rich? On the contrary, once you are rich, you would have less time to devote yourself to others, maintaining and increasing your received or earned wealth.

Do understand that wealth will only visit your life when you are ready to receive it and that consists in adopting a willingness attitude to help others when they need. The creative visualization exercises and self suggestion work only for those that already created an inner environment to receive blessings. These exercises will not produce any attraction benefits on those people that don.t deserve to be helped by life.

Luck and opportunities are nothing but the return of the good things you have done in life. The universe returns in the same extent of what you have created to the universe. Jesus taught how to attract good things from life: “Give and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you.” (Luke 6:38).

These words show that the abundance is the result of a previous action that has created abundance in someone's life. The abundance is not a faith's fruit in Jesus or in God. Neither comes from years of imaginative attraction of wealth. You must first give in order to receive. Abandon your selfishness and help others to obtain knowledge, opportunities, prayers, good thoughts and charity. The Law of Attraction is the Law of Return acting in your life, offering opportunities and prosperity for the good things you created to others. Predominant thoughts of wealth will only attract wealth if you first change yourself.

All you usually learn about the Law of Attraction and Neurolinguistics will take a positive effect on people who are internally balanced with a clean and bright aura. For those in disharmony with life, nothing good happens. Seek first the spiritual things and a correct spiritual conduct for you daily life and others, for the Law of Attraction, as it is taught in the literature, manifest itself in your life. You are the cause to attract wealth, health and success. If you already do help people and has a good conduct in life, you are a great candidate to becoming a rich person.

The best and safest way for you to be rich is to lead your thoughts with an interest and concern to serve people you are related in the world the best way possible within your possibilities. The secret for success is doing good deeds thinking about other.s well-being, happiness, satisfaction and contentment. Doing so, you will not need to “run” after money, as it will come right towards you.

When you offer good things, good services or good quality products that can only be returned with good things for you such as prosperity, wealth, success and fame. That is a law and not a religion, esotericism, miracles or any other supernatural things. The spiritual laws of life are stable and harmonious, and it does not matter if you believe or not on those laws, as they continue to be working in the universe and determining people.s fate regardless of religion, belief or faith.

The most important person in the world is not you but your neighbor. When everyone thinks that way, our planet will be a happy and prosperous place for everyone. Learn to take care of others as you do to yourself and those you love. Helping others, sooner or later, will always work out. Begin to give good examples and soon many people will be doing the same in a large fraternal network. The only way to receive good things in life is giving good things. Help others, be optimistic, be positive thinking. That is the real SECRET.

NOTES

(1) The spiritists doctrine is widespread in Brazil and it has based on Alan Kardec.s studies on the existence of our souls beyond our physical bodies death. This religious doctrine is much criticized by the traditional Christians whom do not accept the communication with the dead. Those Christians forget that Jesus talked with Moses and Elijah on Mount Tabor. Could Jesus a “gruesome” thing like that with God? The Brazilian spiritists are good modern Samaritans: discriminated by Pharisees and doctors of the law, but complying with their Christian duty which is helping others.

(2) In January 2007, a couple of Brazilian pastors, known nationally for the accumulated fortune through several years of ministry, was arrested in United States for trying to enter the country with 56 Thousand dollars U.S., not declared at Miami.s airport. They hid the money inside a bible and both were sentenced of ten months in prison divided between house arrest and Tallahassee prison. In January 2008, two years after they were arrested when they landed in Miami, the church headquarters. roof, ministered by that couple for more than 20 years, collapsed killing 7 women and injuring over 70 people.
